Mathematical Intelligence Junaid Mubeen,2022-06-02 There s so much talk about the threat posed by intelligent machines that it sometimes seems as though we should surrender to our robot overlords But Junaid Mubeen isn t ready to throw in the towel just yet As far as he is concerned we have the creative edge over machines because of a remarkable system of thought that humans have developed over the millennia It s familiar to us all but often badly taught in schools and misrepresented in popular discourse maths Computers are of course brilliant at totting up sums pattern seeking and performing mindless tasks of well computation For all things calculation machines reign supreme But Junaid identifies seven areas of intelligence where humans can retain a crucial edge And in exploring these areas he opens up a fascinating world where we can develop our uniquely human mathematical superpowers The Challenges of the Humanities, Past, Present, and Future Albrecht Classen,2018-10-08 This book is a printed edition of the Special Issue The Challenges of the Humanities Past Present and Future Volume 1 that was published in Humanities Monographs in Tang Official Historiography Daniel Patrick Morgan,Damien Chaussende,2019-09-19 This book examines the role of medieval authors in writing the history of ancient science It features essays that explore the content structure and ideas behind technical writings on medieval Chinese state history In particular it looks at the Ten Treatises of the current History of Sui which provide insights into the writing on the history of such fields as astronomy astrology omenology economics law geography metrology and library science Three treatises are known to have been written by Li Chunfeng one of the most important mathematicians astronomers and astrologers in Chinese history The book not only opens a new window on the figure of Li Chunfeng by exploring what his writings as a historian of science tell us about him as a scientist and vice versa it also discusses how and on what basis the individual treatises were written The essays address such themes as 1 the recycling of sources and the question of reliability and objectivity in premodern history writing 2 the tug of war between conservatism and innovation 3 the imposition of the author's voice worldview and personal and professional history in writing a history of a field of technical expertise in a state history 4 the degree to which modern historians are compelled to speak to their own milieu and ideological beliefs
