Question Paper For Tourism June 2014:

Tourist Behaviour Metin Kozak, Nazmi Kozak, 2016-11-18 Consumer research is often central to academic studies in many different fields and more recently tourism studies have empirically examined consumer research from various aspects. However, there is a need to provide information for tourism scholars on how to better understand aspects of tourist behaviour. Tourist Behaviour: An International Perspective provides a collection of topics from both theoretical and practical approaches to building and examining the theory of how consumers think and act within the context of tourism consumption. Divided into six sections, the book presents research within the themes of influence, motivation, choice, and consumption and experience. With contributions from authors in over 15 countries, the book presents an interdisciplinary approach of the latest research in tourist behaviour.

Information and Communication Technologies in Tourism 2015 Iis Tussyadiah, Alessandro Inversini, 2015-01-27 The papers presented in this volume advance the state of the art research on big data and analytics, social media, electronic marketing, mobile computing, and recommender systems, mobile sensors, and geosocial services, augmented reality, wearable computing, smart tourism, electronic distribution for tourism and hospitality products and services, e-learning, responsive web design and management, and eTourism for development. This book covers the most significant areas contributed by prominent scholars from around the world and is suitable for both academics and practitioners who are interested in the latest developments in eTourism.

Tourism and Oil Susanne Becken, 2015-01-12 This book is the first to examine oil constraints and tourism and addresses one of the key challenges for the tourism industry in the future. It provides an estimate of how much oil tourism consumes globally and summarises state of the art information on oil resources, oil data, and public discourse. The volume also offers an analysis of the economic implications of increasing oil prices for tourism and discusses key dimensions relevant for tourism in a post-peak oil world. It will be useful for tourism stakeholders globally, postgraduate students in tourism and resource management, ecological economists, and those researching issues of resource efficiency, carrying capacity, and global environmental change.

Air Transport in the Asia Pacific David Timothy Duval, 2016-03-16 Air transport in the Asia Pacific has undergone significant transformation in the last three decades. What was once a region in the shadow of larger and more prosperous continents such as North America and Europe is now at the forefront of expansion in commercial air service networks, frequency, and capacity, and the overall growth in the contribution of air transport to economies on regional and in many cases individual country levels. Despite this, it represents an area that is generally under-represented in the commercial air transport academic literature. Air Transport in the Asia Pacific seeks to fill this gap. Against this context, the aim of the volume is to offer a contemporary snapshot of current academic research into commercial air transport in the Asia Pacific While one volume cannot realistically address the complete range of identifiable issues this book provides timely specific and research based studies authored by leading academics and practitioners Planning for Tourism Nigel D Morpeth, Hongliang Yan, 2015-05-01 This text provides an innovative approach to the pedagogy of contemporary planning processes within different cultural contexts globally It adopts an innovative multi disciplinary social science approach and through the inclusion of international case studies considers the extent to which intelligent design has enabled the needs of disabled residents and visitors to have universal access to social spaces and facilities In incorporating the consideration into the fabric of the book it will encourage the mainstreaming of universal design and accessible tourism as keystones of planning processes within the C21st SSC CHSL PYP E-book - Attempt All Shift Papers of 2019 Here. testbook.com, 2022-02-20 This SSC CHSL PYP E book covers all shifts papers of 2019 based on the SSC CHSL syllabus Important questions from different sections covering General Intelligence General Awareness Quantitative Aptitude English Language are covered UGC-NET Tourism and Management Exam 2025 Solved Previous year Paper Book Past 7 Year [Year 2018 to 2024] With Solution, 2025-04-26 UGC NET Tourism and Management Exam 2025 Solved Previous year Paper Book Past 7 Year Year 2018 to 2024 With Solution UGC NET Tourism and Management PYQ Book Year 2018 to 2024 Solved Previous year Paper All Questions with Detail Solution Answer Written by Expert Faculty The Nature of Politics Annette A. LaRocco, 2024-04-16 This case study of Botswana focuses on the state building qualities of biodiversity conservation in southern Africa Drawing on extensive fieldwork Annette A LaRocco argues that discourses and practices related to biodiversity conservation are essential to state building in the postcolonial era These discourses and practices invoke the ways the state exerts authority over people places and resources enacts and remakes territorial control crafts notions of ideal citizenship and identity and structures economic relationships at the local national and global levels The book s key innovation is its conceptualization of the conservation estate a term most often used as an apolitical descriptor denoting land set aside for the purpose of conservation LaRocco argues that this description is inadequate and proposes a novel and much needed alternative definition that is tied to its political elements The components of conservation control over land policing of human behavior and structuring of the authority that allows or disallows certain subjectivities render conservation a political phenomenon that can be analyzed separately from considerations of nature or wildlife In doing so it addresses a gap in the scholarship of rural African politics which focuses overwhelmingly on productive agrarian dynamics and often fails to recognize that land nonuse can be as politically significant and wide reaching as land use Botswana is an ideal empirical case study upon which to base these theoretical claims With 39 percent of its land set aside for conservation Botswana is home to large populations of wildlife particularly charismatic megafauna such as the largest herd of elephants on the continent Utilizing more than two hundred interviews participant observation and document analysis this book examines a series of conservation policies and their reception by people living on the conservation estate These phenomena include securitized antipoaching enforcement a national hunting ban 2014 19 restrictions on using wildlife products forced evictions from conservation areas limitations on mobility and freedom of movement the political economy of Botswana s wildlife tourism industry and the conservation of globally important charismatic megafauna species Journal of Education Culture and Society 2015 No 1 , Nic nie wpisano
