This literary companion introduces readers to his life and work. A to Z entries explore themes such as alcoholism coming of age slavery survival and war. A glossary defines terms unique to his work. Appendices provide related historical references writing art and research topics. Combatting Toxic Online Communities Amie Jane Leavitt, 2016-07-15 Today we can find an online community to suit almost any interest we may have. And yet these communities carry an element of menace. The anonymity associated with online communities allows particularly vicious interplay where people can pile on others with virtually zero consequences. Using current examples from the news and connecting this phenomenon to historical incidents like the Salem witch trials this fascinating resource examines an interesting time in the world and grounds it with practical guidelines for being a responsible member of an online community. Edge M. E. Kerr, 2015-09-15 These 15 short stories by a writer the New York Times Book Review has called one of the grand masters of young adult fiction capture our fears yearnings loneliness self doubts and universal need for love and acceptance. M. E. Kerr's pioneering young adult literature has gained a devoted following for fearlessly breaking rules and confronting conformity. In Edge her trademark gifts of pulling apart relationships exposing real emotion and conveying what it means to grow up are on full display. From handling a teenage girl's coming out in We Might as Well All Be Strangers to asking philosophical questions about God life and death in The Sweet Perfume of Goodbye to parodying social norms in Do You Want My Opinion this is a funny moving and brave anthology about faith friendship family ties prom night an unusual act of heroism and staying true to yourself. Starting a Movement Kenneth C.
