

The background of the cover features a broken metal chain, possibly from a padlock, lying on a grey, textured surface. The chain is made of thick, polished metal links. A large, bold, red 'X' is superimposed over the chain, symbolizing breaking or reversing a curse. Small pieces of metal and debris are scattered around the broken links.

Peter Kishore Saval,2015-12-07 Hate malice rage and enmity what would Shakespeare's plays be without these demonic unruly passions This book studies how the tirades and unrestrained villainy of Shakespeare's art explode the decorum and safety of our sanitized lives and challenge the limits of our selfhood Everyone knows Shakespeare to be the exemplary poet of love but how many celebrate his clarifying expressions of hatred How many of us do not at some time feel that we have come away from his plays transformed by hate and washed clean by savage indignation Saval fills the great gap in the interpretation of Shakespeare's unsocial feelings The book asserts that emotions as Aristotle claims in the Rhetoric are connected to judgments Under such a view hatred and rage in Shakespeare cease to be a blinding of judgment or a loss of reason but become claims upon the world that can be evaluated and interpreted The literary criticism of anger and hate provides an alternative vision of the experience of Shakespeare's theater as an intensification of human experience that takes us far beyond criticism's traditional contexts of character culture and ethics The volume which is alive to the judgmental character of emotions transforms the way we see the rancorous passions and the disorderly and disobedient demands of anger and hatred Above all it reminds us why Shakespeare is the exemplary creator of that rare yet pleasurable thing a good hater Heal Them All

Cheryl Schang,2005-05 Heal Them All is both a theological proof and a practical guide to healing By using the principles and methods contained in this book you will see predictable repeatable results You will be able to bring healing to those who come to you earnestly desiring God's touch Dictionary of the Old Testament: Prophets Mark J.
