Innovation and Entrepreneurship (2 vols) Professor Panagiotis Liargovas, 2019-09-19 Autism Mary Clasquin-Johnson, Dikeledi Mahlo, Michel Clasquin-Johnson, 2023-02-10 This book is written at a time of a paradigm shift in the African continent where dependence on western epistemologies and ontologies are giving way to African indigenous knowledge systems. Africa has been an importer of knowledge from the west since time immemorial and this book contributes to the body of knowledge on autism spectrum disorder (ASD) from the African perspective. As a result, decoloniality and Inclusive Education have gained traction within the academic discourse with the University of South Africa (UNISA) hosting a decoloniality annual conference and a summer school to stimulate academic discussions and debates with a focus on African indigenous knowledge systems and theoretical lenses as opposed to the western epistemologies. The book also demystifies some of the misconceptions that children with ASD are a curse and punishment from God or gods. Among others, Ubuntu seems to be the dominant theoretical framework underpinning some of the research studies reported in this book. The Palgrave Handbook of African Men and Masculinities Ezra Chitando, Obert Bernard Mlambo, Sakhumzi Mfecane, Kopano Ratele, 2024-05-07 This handbook provides a comprehensive interdisciplinary overview of key theoretical and analytical approaches, topics and debates in contemporary scholarship on African masculinities. Refusing to privilege Western theoretical constructs but remaining in dialogue with them, contributors explore the contestations around and diversities within men, masculinities and sexualities in Africa. They investigate individual and collective practices of masculinity and interrogate the social construction of masculinities. Bringing together insights from scholars across gender studies, sociology, anthropology, philosophy, history, literature and religion, this book demonstrates how recognizing and upholding the integrity of African phenomena, locating and reflecting on men and masculinities in varied African contexts and drawing new theoretical frameworks all combine to take the discourse on men and masculinities in Africa forward. Chapters examine a range of issues within the context of masculinities including embodiment, sport, violence, militarism, spirituality, gender roles, fatherhood, homosexuality, health and work. This handbook will be valuable reading for scholars, researchers and policymakers in Masculinity Studies and more broadly Gender Studies as well as Africana Studies. Metaphors for Leading - Leading by

Pacifism and Pentecostals in South Africa Marius Nel, 2018-06-27 Most of the early twentieth century Pentecostal denominations were peace churches that encouraged a stance of conscientious objection However since the Second World War Pentecostals have largely abandoned their pacifist viewpoint as they have taken on a more literal Biblical hermeneutic from their interaction with Evangelical denominations This book traces the history of nonviolence in Pentecostalism and suggests that a new hermeneutic of the Bible is needed by today s Pentecostals in order for them to rediscover their pacifist roots and effect positive social change The book focuses on how Pentecostalism has manifested in South Africa during the twentieth century Much of the available academic literature on hermeneutics and exegesis in the field of Pentecostal Studies is of an American or British European origin This book redresses this imbalance by exploring how the Bible has been used amongst African Pentecostals to teach on the apparent paradox of a simultaneously wrathful and loving God It then goes onto suggest that how the Bible is read directly affects how Pentecostals view their role as potential reformers of society So it must be engaged seriously and thoughtfully By bringing Pentecostalism s function in South African society to the fore this book adds a fresh perspective on the issue of pacifism in world Christianity As such it will be of great use to scholars of Pentecostal Studies Theology and Religion and Violence as well as those working in African Studies
