Notes On Civic Education:

Civic Education in the Twenty-First Century Donald M. Gooch, Michael T. Rogers, 2015-09-18 Imagine an America where politicians governmental institutions schools new technologies and interest groups work together to promote informed engaged citizens Civic Education in the Twenty First Century brings together scholars from various disciplines to show how such a United States is possible today Inspired by Alexis de Tocqueville s analysis of American democracy in the early 1800s this edited volume represents a multidimensional evaluation of civic education in its new and varied forms While some lament a civics crisis in America today Civic Education in the Twenty First Century raises hope that we can have an informed and active citizenry We find the activities of a number of politicians government institutions schools and interest groups as promising developments in the struggle to educate and engage Americans in their democracy New technologies and new innovations in civic education have laid the foundation for a revitalized American civic ecology With Civic Education in the Twenty First Century we call for the United States to make these practices less isolated and more common throughout the country The volume is broken into three major sections First there are four chapters exploring the history and philosophical debates about civic education particularly with respect to its role in America s educational institutions Then the second section provides seven groundbreaking inquiries into how politicians and political institutions can promote civic education and engagement through their routine operations As some examples this section explores how politicians through campaigns and judiciaries through community programs enhance civic knowledge and encourage civic engagement This section also explores how new technologies like the Internet and social media are increasingly used by government institutions and other entities to encourage a more politically informed and engaged citizenry Finally the third section contains six chapters that explore programs and practices in higher education that are enhancing civic education engagement and our knowledge of them From the virtual civics campus of Fort Hayes State to citizens academies throughout the country this section shows the possibilities for schools today to once again be civics actors and promoters

The Politics of Civic Education Eleni M. Mantas-Kourounis, 2024-06-10 This book chronicles the progression of civic education advocacy since the early 2000s It identifies the main actors that called for civic education reform describes their motivations and policy platforms and documents the path taken to capture state policy agendas It argues that No Child Left Behind incentivized civic education advocates to mobilize a call to action to restore emphasis on civics that materialized into national policy reform proposals that successfully captured the agendas of state legislatures and bureaucracies This book analyzes the implementation and sustainability of these civic education policy reforms by undertaking a comparative case study analysis of school districts in Utah and Connecticut Through the voices of teachers and district administrators the book tells the story of what happened when these state policy reforms inspired by national initiatives hit the local level where the rubber meets the road As ideological debates about schools and democracy unfold across the country as civic education advocates and proposals proliferate this book treats civic education not as panacea but as a concrete policy area to be analyzed and understood It contextualizes the current debate and offers a critical assessment of the most recent comprehensive state level civic education policy reform It argues that while questions linger about what type of civic inspired educational interventions remains most effective for whom where and why the implementation of such interventions are profoundly impacted by local actors and local politics and that future initiatives should take this dimension into consideration Civic Education Richard G. Niemi,Jane Junn,2005-05-11 Sound democratic decisions rely on a citizenry with at least a partial mastery of the rules and workings of democratic government American high schools where students learn the basics of citizenship thus ought to play a critical role in the success of democracy Yet studies examining the impact of high school government and civics courses on political knowledge over the past quarter century have generally shown that these courses have little or no effect In this important book Richard G Niemi and Jane Junn take a fresh look at what America s high school seniors know about government and politics and how they learn it The authors argue convincingly that secondary school civics courses do indeed enhance students civic knowledge This book is based on the most extensive assessment to date of civic knowledge among American youth the 1988 National Assessment of Education Progress NAEP Civics Assessment The authors develop and test a theoretical model to explain the cognitive process by which students learn about politics and they conclude by suggesting specific changes in the style and emphasis of civics teaching Toleration, Respect and Recognition in Education Mitja Sardoc,2011-07-13 Toleration Respect and Recognition in Education brings together a collection of papers examining the complexity of different interpretations of toleration respect and recognition in education Discusses different theories of toleration and shows how it lies at the centre of a liberal pluralistic society Brings together the work of leading scholars from a range of disciplines Examines how education can accommodate diversity and promote shared public values Local Civics with National Purpose J. Spencer Clark,2021-02-03 This book examines the development of civic education in the United States through the lives of two teachers at Shortridge High School SHS in Indianapolis around 1900 After situating civic education at the turn of the century the book describes the career of Laura Donnan her influences teaching extracurriculars and civic life through the lens of her unique epistemology shaped by negotiating the gendered ideologies of her era Then the book re examines Arthur W Dunn s career focusing on his ten years at SHS and the influence of Donnan on his popular community civics curriculum and subsequently the 1916 report The Social Studies in Secondary Education Previous scholars have overlooked Dunn s time at SHS viewing it simply as a stepping stone for the progressive educator s career This book argues that Dunn s time at SHS was pivotal to his career due to influential colleagues primarily Donnan To conclude Clark discusses the implications of Donnan s epistemology in shaping civic education in the United States Notes ,1918 Civic Education for Diverse Citizens in Global Times Beth C. Rubin,James M. Giarelli,2013-10-11 This book explores four interrelated themes rethinking civic education in light of the diversity of U S society re examining these notions in an increasingly interconnected global context re considering the ways that civic education is researched and practiced and taking stock of where we are currently through use of an historical understanding of civic education There is a gap between theory and practice in social studies education while social studies researchers call for teachers to nurture skills of analysis decision making and participatory citizenship students in social studies classrooms are often found participating in passive tasks e g quiz and test taking worksheet completion listening to lectures rather than engaging critically with the curriculum Civic Education for Diverse Citizens in Global Times directed at students researchers and practitioners of social studies education seeks to engage this divide by offering a collection of work that puts practice at the center of research and theory Routledge Library Editions: Security and Society Various, 2021-09-30 This 12 volume set contains titles originally published between 1934 and 1995 An eclectic mix of titles this collection draws from anthropology economics ethics politics psychology and sociology Exploring security in both war and peacetime it includes volumes looking at the causes of war and its effect on society as a whole the soldiers themselves and their place in society the portrayal of war in the press both in words and photographs and the politics behind them The Journal of Education ,1889 Newark School Bulletin ,1924

Affective Education in Europe Peter Lang, 1998-08-01 Affective education can be defined as that part of the educational process which concerns itself with the attitudes feelings beliefs and emotions of students Central to the concept is the acknowledgement that student s feelings about themselves as learners and about their academic subjects can be at least as influential as their actual ability This collection features the work of contributors from countries such as Belgium Denmark Russia Germany Israel Spain and the UK It shows how the practical approach to affective education varies from nation to nation By analyzing the underlying theory this text sets out to bring the different approaches closer together to enable teachers across the continent to work towards a positive common ground Resources in Education ,2001-04

Educational Administration & Supervision ,1918 Civic Education and Competences for Engaging Citizens in Democracies Murray Print, Dirk Lange, 2013-02-11 Civic Education and Competences for Engaging Citizens in Democracies Murray Print University of Sydney and Dirk Lange Leibniz University of Hannover What competences do young citizens need to be considered as active and engaged in the context of a modern Europe In 2011 an invited research symposium of leading civic and political educators social scientists and educational administrators from Europe met in Hannover Germany to consider this key concern facing Europe today In examining the above question the symposium addressed two significant issues 1 Identify key competencies required for active citizenship of young people in Europe of the future 2 Translate those competencies to school based activities in the form of curricular and pedagogical strategies The group addressed these questions through discussion in the symposium and through previously prepared papers Subsequently the group participated in a modified Delphi Technique to identify the key competences and the final competences are presented in this book The chapters of this book represent the contribution of the participants before during and after the symposium with opportunities for review and reflection Murray Print and Dirk Lange are professors from the University of Sydney and Leibniz University of Hannover respectively and are national leaders in civics and citizenship education in their respective countries They have brought together a group of leading European civic and citizenship educators from different academic fields to explore the key issue and to identify the competences for young people to become active and engaged European citizens

Democracy, Intelligent Design, and Evolution Susan P. Liebell, 2013-09-05 Should alternatives to evolution be taught in American public schools or rejected as an establishment of religion Democracy Intelligent Design and Evolution argues that accurate science education helps shape a democratic temperament Rather than defending against Intelligent Design as religion citizens should defend science education as crucial to three aspects of the democratic person political citizenship economic fitness and moral choice Through an examination of Tammy Kitzmiller et al v Dover Area School District contemporary political theory and foundational American texts this volume provides an alternative jurisprudence and political vocabulary urging American liberalism to embrace science for citizenship

School-University-Community Collaboration for Civic Education and Engagement in the Democratic Project R. Martin Reardon, Jack Leonard, 2022-05-01 The Campaign for the Civic Mission of Schools 2011 lamented the lack of high quality civic education in America s schools that leaves millions of citizens without the wherewithal to make sense of our system of government p 4 Preus et al 2016 cited literature to support their observation of a decline in high quality civic education and a low rate of civic engagement of young people p 67 Shapiro and Brown 2018 asserted that civic knowledge and public engagement is at an all time low p 1 Writing as a college senior

Flaherty 2020 urged educators to bravely interpret national local and even school level incidents as chances for enhanced civic education and to discuss them with students in both formal and casual settings p 6 In this eighth volume in the Current Perspectives on School University Community Research series we feature the work of brave educators who are engaged in schooluniversity community collaborative educational endeavors Authors focus on a wide range of projects oriented to civic education writ large some that have been completed and some that are still in progress but all authors evince the passion for civic education that underpins engagement in the democratic project

The Splintering of the American Mind William Egginton, 2018-08-28 A timely provocative necessary look at how identity politics has come to dominate college campuses and higher education in America at the expense of a more essential commitment to equality Thirty years after the culture wars identity politics is now the norm on college campuses and it hasn't been an unalloyed good for our education system or the country Though the civil rights movement feminism and gay pride led to profoundly positive social changes William Egginton argues that our culture's increasingly narrow focus on individual rights puts us in a dangerous place The goal of our education system and particularly the liberal arts was originally to strengthen community but the exclusive focus on individualism has led to a new kind of intolerance degrades our civic discourse and fatally distracts progressive politics from its commitment to equality Egginton argues that our colleges and universities have become exclusive expensive clubs for the cultural and economic elite instead of a national publicly funded project for the betterment of the country Only a return to the goals of community and the egalitarian values underlying a liberal arts education can head off the further fracturing of the body politic and the splintering of the American mind With lively on the ground reporting and trenchant analysis The Splintering of the American Mind is a powerful book that is guaranteed to be controversial within academia and beyond At this critical juncture the book challenges higher education and every American to reengage with our history and its contexts and to imagine our nation in new and more inclusive ways
