Sales Management Edition Cron:

Sales Management Paolo Guenzi, Susi Geiger, 2017-09-16 Sales Management offers a global perspective on the opportunities and issues facing today's sales managers. Current textbooks have failed to move beyond the US context. Sales Management provides unique access to European and international experts with globally relevant case studies. Sport Promotion and Sales Management Richard L. Irwin, William Anthony Sutton, Larry M. McCarthy, 2008 This is a guide to promotion and sales in the sport industry. Experts from the classroom and sports field offer insights and experiential data on the skills needed to succeed in sports promotion and sales. Sales Management Earl D. Honeycutt, John B. Ford, Antonis C. Simintiras, 2003 Designed to prepare upper level undergraduate and graduate business students for work in the exciting field of global sales management this text focuses upon the managerial and cross cultural aspects necessary for leading the global sales force. The Oxford Handbook of Strategic Sales and Sales Management David W. Cravens, Kenneth Le Meunier-FitzHugh, Nigel F. Piercy, 2012-11-22 The Oxford Handbook of Strategic Sales and Sales Management is an unrivalled overview by leading academics in the field of sales and marketing management. Sales theory is experiencing a renaissance driven by a number of factors including building profitable relationships creating delivering brand value strategic customer management sales and marketing relationships global selling and the change from transactional to customer relationship marketing. Escalating sales and selling costs require organisations to be more focused on results and highlight the shifting of resources from marketing to sales. Further the growth in customer power now requires a strategic sales response and not just a tactical one. The positioning of sales within the organisation the sales function and sales management are all discussed. The Handbook is not a general sales management text about managing a sales force but will fill a gap in the existing literature through consolidating the current academic research in the sales area. The Handbook is structured around four key topics. The first section explores the strategic positioning of the sales function within the modern organisation. The second considers sales management and recent developments. The third section examines the sales relationship with the customer and highlights how sales is responding to the modern environment. Finally the fourth section reviews the internal composition of sales within the organisation. The Handbook will provide a comprehensive introduction to the latest research in sales management and is suitable for academics professionals and those taking professional qualifications in sales and marketing. Personal Selling M. C. Cant, C. H. van Heerden, 2005-09 Outlining 10 steps in the personal selling process from prospecting for new business to closing a deal this guide explains the art of the sale. The importance of listening to customers clarifying the difference between selling a product and a service and emphasizing the importance of business ethics are revealed. Descriptions of the options available to those seeking a career in sales are included as is an exploration of the impact of the sales profession on the economy and a reminder that all jobs require some amount of selling. Proceedings of the 1995 World Marketing Congress K. Grant, I. Walker, 2015-06-29 This volume
