Hollywood or History? Lisa K. Pennington, Donna Fortune, Mary E. Tackett, Paige Horst, Meghan A. Kessler, 2024-09-01 Teaching and learning through Hollywood or commercial film and television productions is anything but a new approach and has been something of a mainstay in the classroom for nearly a century. However, purposeful and effective instruction through film is not problem free and there are many challenges that accompany classroom applications of Hollywood motion pictures. In response to the problems and possibilities associated with teaching through film, we are developing a collection of practical classroom ready lesson ideas that might bridge gaps between theory and practice and assist teachers endeavoring to make effective use of film in their classrooms. We believe that film can serve as a powerful tool in the social studies classroom and where appropriately utilized, foster critical thinking and civic mindedness. The NCSS College Career and Civic Life C3 framework represents a renewed and formalized emphasis on the perennial social studies goals of deep thinking, reading, and writing. We believe that as teachers endeavor to digest and implement the platform in schools and classrooms across the country, the desire for access to structured strategies that lead to more active and rigorous investigation in the social studies classroom will grow increasingly acute. Our hope is that this edited book might play a small role in the larger project of supporting practitioners, specifically K-6 teachers of social studies content, by offering a collection of classroom ready tools based on the Hollywood or History strategy and designed to foster inquiry through the careful use of selected motion pictures and television productions.

Reign of Error Diane Ravitch, 2014-08-26 From one of the foremost authorities on education in the United States, former U.S. assistant secretary of education, an incisive, comprehensive look at today's American school system that argues against those who claim it is broken and beyond repair. An impassioned but reasoned call to stop the privatization movement that is draining students and funding from our public schools. In a chapter by chapter breakdown, she puts forth a plan for what can be done to preserve and improve our public schools. She makes clear what is right about U.S. education, how policy makers are failing to address the root causes of educational failure, and how we can fix it.

Defining Identity and the Changing Scope of Culture in the Digital Age Novak, Alison, El-Burki, Imaani Jamillah, 2016-05-19 Since the popularization of Internet technologies in the mid 1990s, human identity and collective culture has been dramatically shaped by our continued use of digital communication platforms and engagement with the digital world. Despite a plethora of scholarship, questions remain regarding how these technologies impact personal identity and perceptions of global culture. Defining Identity and the Changing Scope of Culture in the Digital Age explores a multitude of topics pertaining to selfhood, self-expression, human interaction, and perceptions of civilization and culture in an age where technology has become integrated into every facet of our everyday lives. Highlighting issues of race, ethnicity, and gender in digital culture, interpersonal and computer-mediated communication, pop culture, social media, and the digitization of knowledge, this pivotal reference publication is designed for use by scholars, psychologists, sociologists, and graduate level students interested in the fluid and rapidly evolving norms of identity and culture through digital media

The Alignment Premium Brian J Caldwell, 2018-11-01 It is time for a new narrative on schools in Australia The Alignment Premium proposes its major features Analysis of approaches in 13 countries including most of the world's top performers provides 15 benchmarks against which Australia's performance is assessed Findings include Alignment among different levels of government may be commendable in some respects but there is much that is coercive contrived dysfunctional or illusory While achieving a top ten ranking will depend on what occurs in schools attention should shift to how systems are adapting to support all schools to become as good as Australia's best Lack of trust and inertia are serious constraints on efforts to transform Australia's schools Programs for professional learning of teachers and school leaders are impressive when assessed against international benchmarks These should be the top priority Building on findings in The Autonomy Premium the focus should be on professional autonomy The challenge is to design a system in which all those who work in or for schools are fully professional This challenge extends to early childhood and innovative approaches to polytechnic education The Alignment Premium is essential reading for policymakers school leaders and researchers who wish to write the new narrative
