

*1A Teacher: NYSUT Self Reflection

Registration: This form is optional. You can choose to submit your own form.

At the beginning of each school year, teachers review the NYS Teaching Standards and the Teacher Practice Rubric (click here) in consideration of the needs of their incoming student population, changes in curriculum, developments in content area, assessments, and student and community contexts.

Instructions:

Please complete each of the questions below.

1. Using available data, how do my plans for this year reflect the specific needs of my incoming students? (e.g., Does my class include English language learners and / or students with disabilities? Does any student need special support?)

2. What changes in curriculum or developments in my content area affect my planning, teaching or assessment?

3. What professional learning opportunities have informed my understanding of teaching and learning for this year? Are there any professional development strategies or opportunities that might be especially appropriate for my professional growth needs in this academic year?

Costanza,2019-10-04 Kind of cool to see that you have been conducting and living a personal study your entire life You can go to school for a lifetime and still not get the same knowledge that experiencing that lifetime could give you Once you realize that all your resources lie within the lessons of those experiences you can be free of all doubt Just trust that you will make every turn from here on out the right one In this workbook I break down life into 7 year sections 0 7 8 14 and 15 21 asking you to reflect on good experiences and bad Then breaking down relationships the same way compartmentalizing heart connections friendships and mentorships also reflecting on the good and bad experiences within those connections At the end of the book you will be connecting all these experiences to the present The major self reflection will be to look with clarity toward the future by being empowered with knowing you have been manifesting what comes to you the whole time It is empowering and is a formula to turn experience into wisdom Grab a journal that you can dedicate to this workbook In the very end you will be able to publish your own unique story Through this work you will unlock the answers that are within you
