The Five-Factor Model of Personality Across Cultures Robert R. McCrae, Juri Allik, 2012-12-06 ROBERT R MCCRAE
it is simply personality research conducted in different countries The implicit assumption behind this practice is that personality processes are universal and where they are studied is thus of no consequence An insensitivity to cultural context once imputed mostly to Americans now appears to characterize the field worldwide Fortunately recent years have also seen a rise of interest in studies of personality and culture Church 2001 Church Lee McCauley McCrae 2000 What do these new studies show Are personality processes indeed universal or are there significant variations across cultures that necessitate a more nuanced approach to research There is as yet no definitive answer to that question In some respects human personality does seem to transcend the boundaries of language and culture in other respects it is profoundly influenced by social and historical forces Sorting these issues out must be a priority for our field if we are to understand the current personality literature

Religion, Women's Health Rights, and Sustainable Development in Zimbabwe: Volume 2 Sophia Chirongoma, Molly Manyonganise, Ezra Chitando, 2022-08-26 This volume brings to the fore the interface of religion women's sexual reproductive health and rights SRHR and the sustainable development goals SDGs in Zimbabwe It emphasizes that empowering African women is a pivotal pillar for attaining sustainable development Contributors discuss the need for implementing structural changes as a prerequisite for social progress and development to occur in Southern Africa They interrogate the extent to which religious beliefs and practices either promote or impede women's SRHR The contributors also proffer several ways in which addressing the themes of health for all and equality for all women and girls can make a meaningful contribution towards the fulfillment of the goals set for Agenda 2030

Gendered Spaces, Religion and Migration in Zimbabwe Ezra Chitando, Sophia Chirongoma, Molly Manyonganise, 2022-10-12 This book explores the intersections of gender religion and migration within the context of post independent Zimbabwe with a specific focus on how gender disparities impact economic development By demonstrating how these interconnections impact women's and girls lived realities the book addresses the need for gender equity gender inclusion and gender mainstreaming in both religious and societal institutions This book assesses the gender and migration nexus in Zimbabwe and examines the impact of religious cultural ideologies on the status of women In doing so it assesses the transition of Zimbabwean women across spaces and provides insights into the practical strategies that can be utilised to improve their status both at home and on the move Furthermore chapters show how space continues to be gendered in ways that perpetuate structural inequality to challenge the exclusion of women from key social processes Contributing to ongoing scholarly debates on gender in Africa this book will be of interest to academics and students of Gender Studies Women's Studies African Studies Development Studies as well as advocates of human rights and gender activists
