The Body and Desire Raphael A. Cadenhead,2018-11-27 Although the reception of the Eastern Father Gregory of Nyssa has varied over the centuries the past few decades have witnessed a profound awakening of interest in his thought The Body and Desire sets out to retrieve the full range of Gregory s thinking on the challenges of the ascetic life by examining within the context of his theological commitments his evolving attitudes on what we now call gender sex and sexuality Exploring Gregory s understanding of the importance of bodily and spiritual maturation for the practices of contemplation and virtue Raphael A Cadenhead recovers the vital relevance of this vision of transformation for contemporary ethical discourse The

Erotics of Grief Megan Moore,2021-09-15 The Erotics of Grief considers how emotions propagate power by exploring whose lives are grieved and what kinds of grief are valuable within and eroticized by medieval narratives Megan Moore argues that grief is not only routinely eroticized in medieval literature but that it is a foundational emotion of medieval elite culture

Focusing on the concept of grief as desire Moore builds on the history of the emotions and Georges Bataille s theory of the erotic as the conflict between desire and death one that perversely builds a sense of community organized around a desire for death The link between desire and death serves as an affirmation of living communities Moore incorporates literary visual and codicological evidence in sources from across the Mediterranean from Old French chansons de geste such as the Song of Roland and La mort le roi Artu and romances such as Erec et Enide Philomena and Floire et Blancheflor to Byzantine and ancient Greek novels to Middle English travel narratives such as Mandeville s Travels In her reading of the performance of grief as one of community and remembrance Moore assesses why some lives are imagined as mattering more than others and explores how a language of grief becomes a common language of status among the medieval Mediterranean elite New something that could be perceived in women s sex organs Treating virginity as anatomical brought both benefits and costs By charting this change and situating it in the larger landscape of ancient thought Virgin Territory illuminates unrecognized differences among early Christian sources and historicizes problematic ideas about women s bodies that still persist today of self cultivation in the art of living In this book Richard Shusterman offers a critical comparative analysis of the erotic theories proposed by the most influential premodern cultural traditions that shaped our contemporary world Beginning with ancient Greece whose god of desiring love gave eroticism its name Shusterman examines the Judaeo Christian biblical tradition and the classical erotic theories of Chinese Indian Islamic and Japanese cultures before concluding with medieval and Renaissance Europe His exploration of their errors and insights shows how we could improve the quality of life and love today By using the engine of eros to cultivate qualities of sensitivity grace skill and self mastery we can reimagine a richer more positive vision of sex education New York Magazine ,1994-06-20 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine s consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea Classics of Moral and Political Theory Michael L. The Trouble with Passion Cheryl Ann Hall,2005 Political theorists have long argued that passion has no place in the political realm where reason reigns supreme But is this dichotomy between reason and passion sustainable Does it underestimate the indispensable role of passion in a fully democratic society Drawing upon Plato Rousseau and contemporary feminist theorists Cheryl Hall argues that passion is an essential component of a just political community and that the need to educate passion together with reason is paramount Trouble with Passion provides a compelling defense of the crucial place of passion in politics New York Magazine ,1996-03-11
