Fontaine Moli re and Voltaire to Rimbaud and Camus from Baudelaire to Beckett from Wagner to Goytisolo This very diversity gives necessary context providing scope for reflection and analysis Although passion seems timeless can heroism have any real meaning apart from an individual and existential one in our postmodern age Has a notion at the centre of European culture for so many centuries really disappeared from our intellectual and cultural universe This volume will be of interest to all students of literature whatever their critical or linguistic allegiance since it focuses on the varying manifestations of two vital ingredients of all societies and cultures

The Passion of Jesus in the Gospel of Matthew Donald Senior, 1990 The Word of the cross is a living word crying out for reinterpretation as life takes new shape and expression Reinterpreting the Gospel was particularly compelling for Matthew s church because his Christians lived in a time of profound transition The Passion of Jesus then was not simply a story of suffering out of the past but a point of identification for the Christians of Matthew s own time For us twentieth century Christians who also know the peculiar suffering and hope of living in an age that is both dying and being born the Passion of Jesus according to Matthew has special meaning
