Nypd Patrol Guide 21:

NYPD Confidential Leonard Levitt, 2009-07-21 For years the police commissioner and the mayor of New York City have duked it out for publicity credit and power Some have translated their stardom into success after leaving office while others have been hung out to dry In the battle for control of the country s most powerful police force these high status government officials have often chosen political expediency over public honesty The result is a legacy of systemic corruption and cover ups that is nothing less than shocking Respected journalist Leonard Levitt has covered the NYPD for New York Newsday and the New York Post among other papers His columns have made him persona non grata in police headquarters In NYPD Confidential he reveals everything he s discovered throughout his decades long career With amazing details of backroom deals and larger than life powerbrokers Levitt lays bare the backstabbing power grabs and chaotic internal investigations that have run the NYPD s reputation into the ground in the past and the forces conspiring to do so once again Evaluation of the New York City Police Department Firearm Training and Firearm-Discharge Review Process Bernard D.

Rostker, Lawrence M. Hanser, William M. Hix, Carl Jensen, Andrew R. Morral, 2008-06-09 In January 2007 New York City Police Commissioner Raymond W Kelly asked the RAND Corporation to examine the quality and completeness of the New York City Police Department s firearm training program and identify potential improvements in it and in the police department s firearm discharge review process This monograph reports the observations findings and recommendations of that study
