Einbürgerungsantrag

It seems to be a reading comprehension with some listening tasks. The context is about a person's decision to naturalize and become a citizen. "I will attend citizenship classes and language classes, and social activities and give evidence (evidence that you know that language) you are worth applying for." The application is to get the citizenship further away, and you'll have the chance to apply with the application. It shows you can use the application paper.

There is also a task about writing a letter. "I will write a letter to the citizenship office, and the citizenship office will be happy to help you with the application." I have a question.
