the many under resourced languages of Africa Yearbook of International Organizations 2014-2015, Volumes 1a & 1b (Set) Union of International Associations,2014-06-16 Volume 1 A and B covers international organizations throughout the world comprising their aims activities and events African Socialism in Postcolonial Tanzania Priya Lal,2015-12-01 Drawing on a wide range of oral and written sources this book tells the story of Tanzania s socialist experiment the ujamaa villagization initiative of 1967 75 Inaugurated shortly after independence ujamaa familyhood in Swahili both invoked established socialist themes and departed from the existing global repertoire of development policy seeking to reorganize the Tanzanian countryside into communal villages to achieve national development Priya Lal investigates how Tanzanian leaders and rural people creatively envisioned ujamaa and documents how villagization unfolded on the ground without affixing the project to a trajectory of inevitable failure By forging an empirically rich and conceptually nuanced account of ujamaa African Socialism in Postcolonial Tanzania restores a sense of possibility and process to the early years of African independence refines prevailing theories of nation building and development and expands our understanding of the 1960s and 70s world

Religion and State in Tanzania Revisited Thomas Ndaluka,Frans Wijsen,2014 This book looks at the relationship between religion and state in Tanzania as a feature of the Tanzanian social scene from pre colonial colonial times to post colonial times It examines the changes in the character of religion and state relations especially after independence and the way these changes are experienced in different communities particularly by African traditionalists Muslims and Christians The book studies the nature of the relationship between religion and state the way it is conceptualized and experienced and the implications for the democratic aspirations of pluralist Tanzania Series Interreligious Studies Vol 7 Subject History African Studies Religious Studies Politics Digital Transformation and Internationalization Strategies in Organizations Yildiz, Orkun,2021-10-15 Competitive strategies and higher education industry collaboration policies are playing an important role in fostering the reputation and international rankings of higher education institutions The positive impact of these policies may best be observed in economic and social outputs of many countries such as the USA Singapore South Korea EU countries and Turkey However the number of academic publications that specifically concentrate on the impact of these policies on higher education institutions and authorities remains relatively limited Digital Transformation and Internationalization Strategies in Organizations covers a wide range of issues and topics including employment systems quality management systems international ranking systems in higher education education and language policies in higher education and business models employed in techno parks This book helps higher education institutions manage their manpower and become cognizant of the factors that may exert a drastic impact on their success It is ideal for managers executives IT consultants researchers practitioners academics professors and undergraduate and postgraduate students

Multinationals, Poverty Alleviation and UK Aid Jo-Anna Russon,2023-10-12 This book analyses the complex relationship between the private sector UK official development assistance ODA and poverty alleviation in sub Saharan Africa

In recent years the private sector has occupied an increasingly prominent position within UK ODA bringing a range of opportunities and conflicting interests This book first traces the trajectory of private sector engagement in ODA before setting out the theoretical and analytical framework for analysing the mutual prosperity agenda in UK ODA the notion that ODA can benefit both donor and beneficiary country interests By extending corporate social responsibility theory in the emerging field of business and development studies to ODA the book critiques the underlying assumptions contained within UK ODA multinational corporation partnerships With reference to three case studies GlaxoSmithKline plc Barclays plc and Anheuser Busch InBev formerly SABMiller the book identifies where the activities of multinational corporations support and or undermine ODA goals and the implications for the UK s mutual prosperity agenda Overall the book reflects a pragmatic approach to maximising the role of private sector actors in ODA whilst also drawing attention to the opportunities and challenges in the mutual prosperity agenda The book will be of interest to researchers from business management development studies and political science as well as to practitioners with an interest in the role of the private sector in ODA

Agricultural Development and Food Security in Africa Renu Modi,Fantu Cheru,2013-08-08 The subject of food security and land issues in Africa has become one of increased importance and contention over recent years In particular the focus has shifted to the role new global South donors especially India China and Brazil are playing in shaping African agriculture through their increased involvement and investment in the continent Approaching the topic through the framework of South South co operation this highly original volume presents a critical analysis of the ways in which Chinese Indian and Brazilian engagements in African agriculture are structured and implemented Do these investments have the potential to create new opportunities to improve local living standards transfer new technology and knowhow to African producers and reverse the persistent productivity decline in African agriculture Or will they simply aggravate the problem of food insecurity by accelerating the process of land alienation and displacement of local people from their land Topical and comprehensive Agricultural Development and Food Security in Africa offers fresh insight into a set of relationships that will shape both Africa and the world over the coming decades

Giblin,2022-12-15 This book investigates the relationship between heritage and development from the global visions articulated by UNESCO and the Sustainable Development Goals SDGs to local activism livelihood innovations and political strategies employed in diverse countries of the Global South In recent years as culturally informed approaches to international development have become increasingly important engaging with heritage has been seen as a way to draw on practices and meanings from the past to help build future development This book gathers researchers and practitioners from across disciplines to address important themes such as health the environment sustainability peace security tourism and economic growth In doing so the book asks us to consider whose past and whose future is ultimately at stake in efforts to use heritage for development Key topics explored include histories and legacies of colonialism and calls for decolonisation and related questions of expertise ownership and agency Students practitioners and researchers from across the broad areas of history heritage education archaeology geography and development studies will find this book an invaluable guide to dynamic and contested understandings of heritage and development and the relationship between them Universities and Climate Action Tristan McCowan,2025-05-08 Universities have a pivotal role to play in addressing the climate crisis not only educating an increasingly large proportion of the global population but also through scientific breakthroughs technological innovation and raising public awareness Higher education is particularly important given the roots of ecological and social breakdown in our models of civilisation culture and knowledge Yet its potential has not always been realised and universities have historically been implicated in the exploitation and destruction of the natural environment and human communities A transformation is thus needed in higher education with institutions reorienting their activities towards positive engagement with climate Universities and Climate Action presents an original framework for understanding the impact of universities on climate change It explores the interactions of education research services public debate and campus operations on society and the ecosphere and the complex interplay of influences on local national and global levels It provides in depth discussions of ways of engaging with climate in teaching and learning and the curriculum in research agendas in governance and management of estates and in engaging with external communities The theoretical models are contextualised with examples of climate action in universities around the world This book provides vital tools for analysis and action for researchers and practitioners working with and within the higher education sector Praise for Universities and Climate Action Universities and Climate Action is a critical timely and well evidenced call to transform higher education to tackle the climate crisis McCowan persuasively argues that universities must move beyond sustainability rhetoric to spearhead systemic change through education research activism and decolonised knowledge It is essential reading for educators policymakers and researchers Prof Leon Tikly University of Bristol This book unsettles the illusion that universities can simply green their way out of the climate crisis McCowan calls for a radical reimagining of education one that disrupts transforms and realigns knowledge with planetary survival Prof Iveta Silova Arizona State University

Flexible Regional Economic Integration in Africa

Timothy Masiko,2022-04-21 This book examines the relationship between flexible regional economic integration in the East African Community EAC through its application of variable geometry and the establishment of the African Continental Free Trade Area AfCFTA as a continent wide form of integration It uses a historical political legal and economic analysis of the processes that led to the adoption of flexible regional integration in Africa with particular regard to the EAC This takes place in the inescapable context of pan Africanism showing how regional integration efforts in Africa are based on pan Africanist ideals and how an evolution of these ideals has led to an evolution in the goals of integration With growing awareness of the weaknesses and impracticality of consensus based decision making on a global level it makes the case for the pursuit of flexibility in multilateral trade drawing lessons from the experience of the AfCFTA and blocs in other regions This book is a historical evaluation of regional economic integration efforts in Africa and it follows the path of attempts to integrate the economies on the continent from colonial times to the birth of the AfCFTA While it is a study in law it relies heavily on politics economics and history to weave together a more complete theory of economic integration based on the African experience Flexible Regional Economic Integration in Africa was awarded the 2020 SIEL Hart Prize in International Economic Law
