

The SAT Essay

"Even though it's optional," at many competitive colleges it's required, and many more recommend it, so it's in your best interest to complete it.

30 minutes: You will have thirty minutes to study the question ("prompt"), read a 350-700 word prose passage ("source"), and write your essay. That is not a lot of time, so you need to be sure to make quick, solid, and your essay for 11 minutes, and keep your writing direct and concise.

Assessment: The essay will not be scored on length (though you should not only write a minimal response, it'll be thorough); rather, you will be judged on how well you understood the passage, analyzed the author's writing techniques, and written clear, interesting, and correct prose.

Topic: In the mind, the topic is RHETORIC, or the conscious choice of words when they speak or write or choosing the words that will best convey the meaning and purpose of their piece.

In your essay, you must identify and explain the central rhetorical strategy used by the author in the given passage.

PROMPT #1: Make a list of popular rhetorical devices and definitions that you understand and can pull from on the test. Here are just a few key devices to know:

- Allusion
- Analogy/Comparison/Metaphor/Simile
- Hyperbole/ Exaggeration
- Irony/Sarcasm
- Repetition
- Emotional Appeals: Ethos, Pathos, & Logos (do not have to be used together)
- Sarcasm/ Parody
- Sentence Structure/ Lengths
- Tone (needs an adjective to describe what kind of tone)
- Word Choice (give an adjective as well)/ Connotation

PROMPT #2: Make sure that your handwriting is LEGIBLE.

Option	Technique
A	Read the source carefully from start to finish. Note where the writer makes claims and provides evidence of some kind that supports the claim. Keep an eye lookout for secondary claims meant to support the main idea.
B	Scan the source. Read faster than you normally would. They want far specific instances of rhetorical strategies— statistics, quotations, examples, appeals to emotions, and so forth. Then go back and find the claim or claims that each piece of evidence is meant to support.
C	Scan the source for a general impression of the writer's argument. Then go back and read it more carefully. During the second reading, concentrate on details the writer uses to make claims and how the claims are supported by evidence.

PROMPT #3: When writing the essay, make sure you have enough clear evidence from the passage to support your analysis of the author's claims.
