Preaching Made Simple Developing The Art Of Evangelistic Preaching:

Celluloid Sermons Terry Lindvall, Andrew Quicke, 2011-10-01 Christian filmmaking done outside of the corporate Hollywood industry and produced for Christian churches affected a significant audience of church people Protestant denominations and individuals believed that they could preach and teach more effectively through the mass medium of film Although suspicion toward the film industry marked many conservatives during the early 1930s many Christian leaders came to believe in the power of technology to convert or to morally instruct people Thus the growth of a Christian film industry was an extension of the Protestant tradition of preaching with the films becoming celluloid sermons Celluloid Sermons is the first historical study of this phenomenon Terry Lindvall and Andrew Quicke highlight key characters studios and influential films of the movement from 1930 to 1986 such as the Billy Graham Association with its major WorldWide Pictures productions of films like The Hiding Place Ken Curtis Gateway Films the apocalyptic end time films by Mark IV e g Thief in the Night and the instructional video films of Dobson s Focus on the Family assessing the extent to which the church s commitment to filmmaking accelerated its missions and demonstrating that its filmic endeavors had the unintended consequence of contributing to the secularization of liberal denominations The Christian Century, 1924 Women, Church, and Leadership: New Paradigms Eunjoo Mary Kim, Deborah Beth Creamer, 2012-04-06 This book is about leadership a scholarly and pastoral response to the urgent demand for the renewal of the contemporary Christian church It challenges readers to articulate the identity and vision of the church in new ways and encourages them to revitalize their ministry with fresh insight and passion from women s perspectives The eight essays written by female scholars in relation to various areas of theological study and the nine pastoral responses to the essays written by ministers from seven different denominations based on their experiences of actual ministerial settings provide new paradigms of church leadership theologically profound practically relevant and historically timely This volume a product of a collaborative process between academia and church promises to be a most useful resource to renew the leadership of the church and its vocational commitment to the transformation of the church and society The Oxford Handbook of Seventh-Day Adventism Michael W. Campbell, Christie Chui-Shan Chow, David Holland, Denis Kaiser, Nicholas Miller, 2024 This Oxford Handbook contains 39 original essays on Seventh day Adventism Each chapter addresses the history theology and various other social and cultural aspects of Adventism from its inception up to the present as a major religious group spanning the globe Christian Literature in Chinese Contexts John T. P. Lai, 2019-12-20 Christianity in China has a history dating back to the Tang Dynasty 618 907 CE when Allopen the first Nestorian missionary arrived there in 635 In the late sixteenth century Matteo Ricci together with other Jesuit missionaries commenced the Catholic missions to China Protestant Christianity in China began with Robert Morrison of London Missionary Society who first set foot in Canton in 1807 Over the centuries the Western missionaries and Chinese believers were engaged in the enterprise of the translation publication and distribution of a large corpus of Christian literature in Chinese While the extensive distribution of Chinese publications facilitated the propagation of Christianity the Christian messages have been subtly re presented re appropriated and transformed by these works of Chinese Christian literature This Special Issue entitled Christian Literature in Chinese Contexts examines the multifarious dimensions of the production translation circulation and reception of Christian literature with Christian and literature in their broadest sense against the cultural and sociopolitical contexts from the Tang period to modern China The eight articles in this volume cover a variety of intriguing topics including the literary translation endeavors of Western missionaries in Chinese the indigenous works of the Chinese Christians the interaction between the Christian and Chinese literary traditions Chinese reception of the Bible and numerous other relevant concepts

Christian Eloquence C. Colt Anderson,2005 Featuring detailed analysis of medieval homilies and sermons from St Augustine St Gregory the Great St Bonaventure John Colet and Henry Suso as well as original sermons available for the first time in English from Peter Damien and Stephen Langdon this book is an ideal tool for pastors deacons retreat leaders and homiletic students It also serves to introduce readers into the theology and the history of the period

The Mellifluous Bee Fr. Benedict D. O'Cinnsealaigh,2010-06-17 Adam of Dryburgh d 1212 a Scottish Canon of Pr montr Monk of the Charterhouse of Witham theologian reformer abbot and hermit is considered one of the earliest and most important witnesses to the nature of the canonical order in the twelfth century Adam s theological works and sermons show a familiarity with the theological masters and schools of his day and indicate a profound familiarity with the Sacred Scripture the liturgy of the Church as well as ancient classical and Christian literature His theological writings are important for Marian theology because they present one of the earliest theological reflections on the status of the Blessed Virgin Mary for the reforming Canonical movement of the twelfth century Adam s Marian theology maintains a formal Scriptural and Liturgical character Mary is the daughter of the Father Mother of the Son and resting chamber of the Holy Spirit She is the watered garden the ark the queen of heaven and at the same time Adam makes her approachable humble compassionate familiar close a spiritual model for vowed religious and the Mother of the Canonical Order
