Standing Strong Violet Simpson, 2020-06-30 Starting out in life I never enjoyed my teenage years because I was suffering from a mental sickness got married and had three children. We were very poor but happy. I came to America looking for a better life for the children and all hell broke loose. My ex-husband started living a life I never thought of. I came to America illegally and had to run from immigration. It was heartrending what I went through after getting my legal papers, receiving my permanent resident card and finally getting the children into the United States. I was homeless with three children. I was abused physically, mentally and emotionally. I had to run away. It was the most terrifying time of my life on the road and I had nowhere to go. As a parent you try to stir your child in the right direction. Unfortunately, one of my sons turned to the wrong path and there were endless troubles. I couldn't be there for them because I had to work two jobs. I started to save what I could to buy a house in the United States and way after I built my house in Jamaica so I could migrate when it was cold in America. I later got married with another man but that went downhill. I got sick with my right foot and it was difficult to walk. My huge mansion in Jamaica was finally finished and I started to enjoy the warm visits from my lovely family. Then misery hit. All of a sudden a neighbor I used to be more than a mother to became envious of me and decided to block the road that I had dug out ten years prior with his building. That was the only way to my house. I decided to take the case to court and ended up with a lawyer that was a crook and didn't do anything for the case. The lawyer was presented with all the information needed to win the case. Six years later I was still dealing with skeptical lawyers. Other lawyers were dumbfounded as to why the judge ruled in his favor to own the road. I have a new lawyer working on the case now and I've received my registered title to say I own the road. Today the trial has not ended but trials are there to make us strong. There is nothing that I've been in where my Lord and Savior have never gotten me out of. Just trust in God. He will make a way. May God bless you all.

The Ground Between Veena Das, Michael Jackson, Arthur Kleinman, Bhargupati Singh, 2014-04-21 The guiding inspiration of this book is the attraction and distance that mark the relation between anthropology and philosophy. This theme is explored through encounters between individual anthropologists and particular regions of philosophy. Several of the most basic concepts of the discipline including notions of ethics, politics, temporality, self and other and the nature of human life are products of a dialogue both implicit and explicit between anthropology and philosophy. These philosophical undercurrents in anthropology also speak to the question of what it is to experience our being in a world marked by radical difference and otherness. In The Ground Between twelve leading anthropologists offer intimate reflections on the influence of particular philosophers on their way of seeing the world and on what ethnography has taught them about philosophy. Ethnographies of the mundane and the everyday raise fundamental issues that the contributors grapple with in both their lives and their thinking. With directness and honesty they relate particular philosophers to matters such as how to respond to the suffering of the other, how concepts arise in the give and take of everyday life and how to be attuned to the world through the senses Their essays challenge the idea that philosophy is solely the province of professional philosophers and suggest that certain modalities of being in the world might be construed as ways of doing philosophy Contributors Jo o Biehl Steven C Caton Vincent Crapanzano Veena Das Didier Fassin Michael M J Fischer Ghassan Hage Clara Han Michael Jackson Arthur Kleinman Michael Puett Bhricupati Singh Make It Count John N.
