PREFACE

PREFACE

Thank you for purchasing products from our company.

The manuals will help you to operate and maintain the machines rightly. Please make sure to read the manuals carefully before the operating the machines. Then the generators can work in the best condition and prolong the life.

Consumers should notice that this manual might differ slightly from the actual product as more improvements are made to our products. Some of the pictures in this manual may differ slightly from the actual product as well. The manufacturer reserves the right to make changes at any time without notice and without incurring any obligation.

Please notice the following  warning: if you will not operate the machines according to the manuals, there may be body injury and death.

So you MUST operate the machines after the fully understanding of the manuals.
