Now in its third edition, Academic Writing offers a succinct and practical introduction to the development of research papers across the disciplines. Structured around contemporary genre theory which establishes the importance of context for effective communication, the text describes the writing process step by step including how to formulate a topic, gather and properly document sources, develop strong proposals, introductions, core paragraphs and conclusions, and refine the final draft. Additionally, readers will observe the progress and thought processes of Jenna, a first year student, as she crafts her own paper. New to this edition are materials for instructors that include full length research papers, PowerPoint slides, an exam bank, and ideas for study. Rich with such pedagogical features as chapter learning objectives, annotated passages that illustrate aspects of academic style, and a glossary, Academic Writing is a must have textbook for students developing their research and writing skills.

Does Religious Education Matter? Mary Shanahan, 2016-07-28. In the current climate and in an age of increasing hostility towards religion, and the study of religion, religious education is a much debated area. Bringing together an interdisciplinary team of contributors from the USA, Britain, and Ireland, and Australia, representing a variety of religious perspectives, Does Religious Education Matter? provocatively demonstrates that it is vital that religious education is presented as it really is: a valuable and rich resource that when taught and engaged with appropriately stimulates essential qualities for global and responsible citizenship: critical thinking, tolerance, respect, and mutual understanding.

Foundations of Early Childhood Penny Mukherji, Louise Dryden, 2014-01-14. This text will be an invaluable addition to the reading of students and tutors alike. It has been written thoughtfully for students embarking on university courses that study aspects of early childhood education. The introductory chapters give the reader a sense of the thinking and reflection that is helpful for them at the beginning of their studies, and a clear focus on the rights of our youngest children roots the text in a sound pedagogical frame. The later chapters broaden the argument and feel very relevant to the current context in their explorations of the policy and practice of EYFS. I would strongly recommend this text. Jo Albin Clark, Senior Lecturer in Early Years Education, Edge Hill University. This book introduces all the most important aspects of early years care and education.
