Childhood as Memory, Myth and Metaphor Catherine Crimp, 2017-12-02 A fascination with childhood unites the artist Louise Bourgeois 1911 2010 and the writers Samuel Beckett 1906 89 and Marcel Proust 1871 1922 But while many commentators have traced their childhood images back to memories of lived experiences there is more to their mythologies of childhood that waits to be explored They invite us to move away from familiar ideas whether psychological or biographical about what a child can represent and even what a child is The haunting child figures of Bourgeois Beckett and Proust echo each other as they show how imagining origins for a life for a work of art involves paradoxes that test the limits of our forms of expression Art meets literature profusion meets concision French meets English and images of childhood reveal new insights in this encounter between three great figures of twentieth and twenty first century culture Catherine Crimp holds a PhD from the University of Cambridge and is currently Lectrice d'anglais at the Ecole Normale Supérieure de Lyon

Beckett and Nature Charles Clements, Eleanor Green, James Martell, 2025-07-10 New analyses on the insightful ways in which Beckett's work actively engages with contested notions of Nature and the natural developing a radical version of modernism's main questions and insights Beckett and Nature takes its cue from contemporary developments in Beckett scholarship focused on ecocriticism posthumanism and the Anthropocene going beyond them into a questioning of the very concepts of Nature and the natural It examines one of the most unthought ontological dimensions of literature and life that symbolic space deemed natural or part of Nature appears necessary and undeniable and therefore impossible to be deconstructed In doing so the authors show that in fact this space takes on many shapes recognizing three natural dimensions criticized by Beckett bodies worlds and literatures Featuring a wide range of both Beckett's work and Beckett scholars including Jean Michel Rabat and Stanley E Gontarski Beckett and Nature offers contextualized readings of the understandings of nature and the natural throughout his decade spanning oeuvre The volume shows that part of the radicality of Beckett's writing is that through a variety of evolving techniques and strategies it questions what appears in our cultures as the most unquestionable and opens up possibilities for thinking not only what is human literature and philosophy but also gender identity and any attempt at definitions of ourselves or the world at large Beckett Writing Beckett H. Porter Abbott, 2019-01-24 Suppose that before he is writing fiction before he is writing drama before he is writing any of the autonomous highly polished pieces that make up his life work Beckett is writing Beckett What follows from this In Beckett Writing Beckett H Porter Abbott argues that by the time he had written Waiting for Godot Beckett's art had crystallized as a life project keyed to the simultaneous action of writing and reading the self How does such an interpretive shift change the way we see the salient features of Beckett's art his extraordinary and persistent assaults on narrative his restless exploration of genres and media his attempts to exercise autocratic control over performance and publication his increasingly musical formal structures his tireless capacity to invent How moreover does this view relate to the contempt for autobiography so pervasive in Beckett's work In approaching these questions Beckett Writing Beckett seeks to redirect current discussion of such concepts as the author and originality Arguing on several widely contested fronts in Beckett criticism including such vexed issues as Beckett's postmodernism his politics and his relation to his audience Abbott develops an interpretive method grounded in the concept of autographical action The method allows Abbott to articulate the centrality of the inexhaustible strangeness of Beckett's work and to do so without robbing that strangeness of its power to surprise Modernism Melba Cuddy-Keane, Adam Hammond, Alexandra Peat, 2014-02-05 Guided by the historical semantics developed in Raymond Williams' pioneering study of cultural vocabulary Modernism Keywords presents a series of short entries on words used with frequency and urgency in written modernism tracking cultural and literary debates and transformative moments of change Short listed for The Modernist Studies Association 2015 Book Prize for an Edition Anthology or Essay Collection Highlights and exposes the salient controversies and changing cultural thought at the heart of modernism Goes beyond constructions of plural modernisms to reveal all modernist writing as overlapping and interactive in a simultaneous and interlocking mix Draws from a vast compilation of more than a thousand sources ranging from vernacular prose to experimental literary forms Spans the long modernist period from its incipient beginnings c 1880 to its post WWII aftermath Approaches English written modernism in its own terms tempering explanations of modernism often derived from European poets and painters Models research techniques based on digital databases and collaborative work in the humanities Beckett & la psychanalyse Sjeff Houppermans,1996 Subject Matters ,2022-02-22 What can we currently make of the subject Under the sway of structuralism and poststructuralism critical thinking took a distinctly negative turn effectively disqualifying any form of subjectivity as a reference point in discussions of textual or literary meaning Since the mid 1970s however throughout the human sciences human agency has been restored as both a methodological principle and an ethical value a phenomenon broadly designated as the return of the subject Yet the returning subject bears the traces of its problematization The present collection of essays explores the ways in which the subject now matters both in principle and in the variety of critical approaches in authorizes Essays which are both literary and theoretical in character cover authors texts and issues in French literature from Descartes to the present A wide range of types of writing is examined from established forms such as the novel to relatively marginal and generically unsystematized discursive practices such as automatic writing and the r cit de r ve Though it shuns closure in a matter which remains ultimately elusive this book offers some account of the types of answer which remain open and of those we have learned to leave behind Translating Samuel Beckett around the World José Francisco Fernández,Pascale Sardin,2021-08-03 The global reception of Samuel Beckett raises numerous questions in which areas of the world was Beckett first translated Why were Beckett texts sometimes slow to penetrate certain cultures How were national literatures impacted by Beckett s oeuvre Translating Samuel Beckett around the World brings together leading researchers in Beckett studies to discuss these questions and explore the fate of Beckett in their own societies and national languages The current text provides ample coverage of the presence of Beckett in geographical contexts normally ignored by literary criticism and reveals unknown aspects of the 1969 Nobel Prize winner interacting with translators of his work in a number of different countries Infrathin Marjorie Perloff,2021-09-03 Esteemed literary critic Marjorie Perloff reconsiders the nature of the poetic examining its visual grammatical and sound components The infrathin was Marcel Duchamp s playful name for the most minute shade of difference that between the report of a gunshot and the appearance of the bullet hole or between two objects in a series made from the same mold Eat is not the same thing as ate The poetic Marjorie Perloff suggests can best be understood as the language of infrathin For in poetry whether in verse or prose words and phrases that are seemingly unrelated in ordinary discourse are realigned by means of sound visual layout etymology grammar and construction so as to make it new In her revisionist micropoetics Perloff draws primarily on major modernist poets from Stein and Yeats to Beckett suggesting that the usual emphasis on what this or that poem is about does not do justice to its infrathin possibilities From Goethe s eight line Wanderer s Night Song to Eliot s Four Quartets to the minimalist lyric of Rae

Armantrout Infrathin is designed to challenge our current habits of reading and to answer the central question what is it that makes poetry poetry
