Unwanted Christina Keim, 2025-06-10 Any horse but for a change of circumstances can become unwanted The unwanted are racetrack rejects excess ranch stock foals that did not live up to their breeder's expectations They are aged Amish cart horses horses with chronic lameness issues the pony a child outgrew They are show horses pleasure horses the pretty horses and the plain They come in all colors sizes and shapes The US equine industry consistently produces more horses each year than the number of appropriate homes leaving thousands of animals with nowhere to go Recently as many as 150 000 of these horses have shipped annually to equine slaughterhouses in Canada Mexico and abroad Others are sold at auction given away starved abused and abandoned Just over 1 000 rescues and municipal organizations across the country equipped to handle horses at risk report they are consistently close to or at capacity Most are stretched to the breaking point when it comes to finances material resources and human power Horsewoman and journalist Christina Keim a veteran of the equine industry believes the unwanted horse crisis urgently needs our collective voice and attention Solving it she suggests requires a sea change in the face of not just fundamental values and beliefs but also hard economic realities and deeply held cultural attitudes In her meticulously researched study of this devastatingly real and present problem so many choose to ignore she travels the country bringing readers to livestock auctions rescues and therapy centers describing work and life behind the scenes and the animals who find themselves there Keim interviews industry experts including veterinarians lawmakers welfare advocates and shelter workers and reviews published data to help separate unwanted horse facts from fantasy She works to dispel common myths and misconceptions surrounding the slaughter pipeline without taking away from the harsh reality horses face once in it And perhaps most importantly she showcases the work of many dedicated individuals and groups who are collectively helping to carve out a new niche for the horse that both honors his heritage and can help to preserve his future
