Volleyball Sponsorship Letter

April 25, 2050

Enrique J. Lundquist

3083 Masonic Drive

Stanford, MT 59479

Dear Mr. Lundquist,

I hope this letter finds you in good health. As you may be aware, the Elite Volleyball Team organizes numerous sporting events yearly. We have been doing this to encourage our youth's interest in sports and promote a healthier lifestyle.

For this event, we are currently hunting for potential sponsors who would like to contribute and be a part of our noble cause. We came across your esteemed organization and thought your company's ethos aligns perfectly with ours. Sponsoring this event could provide your brand with significant visibility among a vibrant and passionate audience.

Your kind contribution will be utilized efficiently to ensure the tournaments are executed

Playing Out of Bounds Yuka Nakamura, 2019-08-22 Playing Out of Bounds investigates the North American Chinese Invitational Volleyball Tournament NACIVT an annual event that began in the 1930s in the streets of Manhattan and now attracts 1200 competitors from the U S and Canada Its two key features are the 9 man game where there are nine instead of the usual six volleyball players on the court and the fact that player eligibility is limited to 100% Chinese and Asian players as defined in the tournament rules These rules that limit competitors to specific ethno racial groups is justified by the discrimination that Chinese people faced when they were denied access to physical activity spaces and instead played in the alleyways and streets of Chinatowns Drawing on interviews participant observation and analysis of websites and tournament documents Playing Out of Bounds explores how participants understand and negotiate their sense of belonging within this community of volleyball players and how membership within and the boundaries of this community are continually being re defined This identity community building occurs within a context of anti Asian racism growing numbers of mixed race players and fluidity of what it means to be Canadian American Chinese and Asian

Proposal Planning & Writing Jeremy T. Miner, Kelly C. Ball-Stahl, 2019-08-02 No matter whether you are approaching public or private sponsors this thorough and detailed step by step guide will enable you to plan and write winning proposals Grantseeking is always a competitive process As organizational needs outstrip resources groups turn to grants as a means of strengthening their financial footing while pursuing their missions This book draws on the authors three decades of grantseeking experiences in writing successful proposals conducting grant workshops nationwide reviewing government and foundation proposals and critiquing application guidelines for grantmakers to lead readers through the process of planning and writing successful proposals The authors first provide practical strategies for project planning including identifying sponsors matching grantseeker needs to sponsor priorities and qualifying prospects through pre proposal contacts The authors then guide users systematically through proposal writing including introducing a template for letter proposals to private foundations and corporations describing the primary elements of government proposals and providing tips for constructing a realistic budget This advice as well as the key questions to answer before you begin writing actual proposals that were declined with rejection reasons and complete sample letter proposals comprised in this volume will help both beginning and experienced grantseekers to better plan and develop fundable projects

Volunteering As Leisure/leisure As Volunteering Robert A. Stebbins, Margaret Graham, 2004-04-07 Volunteerism is a topic of increasing importance in this age of budget cuts declining employment and amid the threat posed by other competing leisure pursuits There are both social and economic benefits of volunteering As we are becoming more reliant on volunteers there is a need for a better understanding of why people take up volunteering and how to recruit manage motivate and support volunteers most effectively In order for organisations that host volunteers to achieve the most from their volunteers they must understand how to give them the best leisure experience This book
