Capstone research paper outline guide

This document clearly details the sections that are required to be included in your paper, and gives an explanation about what kind of details should be included in each section. Ideas for optional, relevant sections are also included here. Please refer to this document throughout the capstone project process.

SECTION 1: Title page (required)

This is a single page that includes:

- The title of your project
- The title of the course and the name of your school
- The date the paper is submitted
- Your full name

SECTION 2: Table of contents (required)

This is one or two pages that lists each section of your paper and the page on which it begins.

SECTION 2A: Acknowledgements (optional)

The acknowledgments are a personal way for the student writer to thank those who were helpful in the preparation of the project, and may contain appropriate information, written in a professional manner, that the student may wish to share with the reader. There is no word limit, but the acknowledgments must not exceed one page in length. Any quotes listed in this section need to be cited; however, use of copyrighted material in this section is discouraged.

SECTION 3: Abstract (required)

The abstract is a concise summary of the research. It should describe the purpose, importance, results, and conclusions of the research. The abstract is to be written in a scholarly manner. There is no word limit, but the abstract must not exceed one page in length, including keywords. The last sentence of the abstract must start with the word "Keywords:" followed by the academic program [select appropriate academic program and include as written here: STEM, Health, Business, Social Sciences], capstone project adviser's full name, and up to five additional keywords that are not included anywhere else in the abstract. Example of last sentence: Keywords: Liberal Studies, Dr. Polly Smith, sociological, anthropological, social, qualitative, human rights.
