Rutgers New Brunswick Essay Question:

Questions of Cultural Identity Stuart Hall, Paul du Gay, 1996-04-04 Why and how do contemporary questions of culture so readily become highly charged questions of identity The question of cultural identity lies at the heart of current debates in cultural studies and social theory At issue is whether those identities which defined the social and cultural world of modern societies for so long distinctive identities of gender sexuality race class and nationality are in decline giving rise to new forms of identification and fragmenting the modern individual as a unified subject Questions of Cultural Identity offers a wide ranging exploration of this issue Stuart Hall firstly outlines the reasons why the question of identity is so compelling and yet so problematic The cast of outstanding contributors then interrogate different dimensions of the crisis of identity in so doing they provide both theoretical and substantive insights into different approaches to understanding identity The Caste

Question Anupama Rao, 2009-10-13 This innovative work of historical anthropology explores how India's Dalits or ex untouchables transformed themselves from stigmatized subjects into citizens Anupama Rao's account challenges standard thinking on caste as either a vestige of precolonial society or an artifact of colonial governance Focusing on western India in the colonial and postcolonial periods she shines a light on South Asian historiography and on ongoing caste discrimination to show how persons without rights came to possess them and how Dalit struggles led to the transformation of such terms of colonial liberalism as rights equality and personhood Extending into the present the ethnographic analyses of The Caste Question reveal the dynamics of an Indian democracy distinguished not by overcoming caste but by new forms of violence and new means of regulating caste Unruly Examples Alexander Gelley, 1995 These 2 essays demonstrate that beyond example's rich genealogy in the rhetorical tradition it involves issues that are central to current theories of meaning and ethics in literature and philosophy Hollywood's White House Peter C. Randi Saloman, 2012-05-16 Explores the way Woolf used essay writing techniques to develop her conception of the modern novel The focus of this study is on Virginia Woolf's vast output of essays and their relation to her fiction Randi Saloman shows that it was by employing tools and methods drawn from the essay genre such as fragmentation stream of consciousness and dialogic engagement with the reader that Woolf managed to leave behind the realism of the 19th century novel Saloman draws on key theorists of the essay such as T W Adorno and Georg Lukacs as well as on more recent scholars of essayism a term devised by Robert Musil to describe the hypothetical quality of the essay mode She shows that the essay as genre and mode shaped Woolf's writing and modern fiction more generally in ways that have not yet been articulated Key Features In depth consideration of Virginia Woolf's shorter essays Revisionary accounts of A Room of One's Own 1929 and Three Guineas 1938 New readings of Woolf's major and less well known novels including The Waves her failed essay novel Repositions the essay as a major modernist genre responsible in large part for the creation of the modern and especially the modernist novel Keywords Virginia Woolf Modernism The Essay Fiction Essayism The Novel Genre First Person Jewish Alisa Lebow, 2008 Examining more than a dozen films from Jewish artists this book reveals how the postmodern impulse to turn the lens inward intersects provocatively with historical tropes and stereotypes of the Jew It focuses on Jewish filmmakers working on the margins and examines the work of Jonathan Caouette Chantal Akerman and many more Political

Conference,1874 Changing the Questions Margaret Farley,2015-03-01 Black Aliveness, or A Poetics of Being Kevin Quashie,2021-02-05 In Black Aliveness or A Poetics of Being Kevin Quashie imagines a Black world in which one encounters Black being as it is rather than only as it exists in the shadow of anti Black violence As such he makes a case for Black aliveness even in the face of the persistence of death in Black life and Black study Centrally Quashie theorizes aliveness through the aesthetics of poetry reading poetic inhabitation in Black feminist literary texts by Lucille Clifton Audre Lorde June Jordan Toni Morrison and Evie Shockley among others showing how their philosophical and creative thinking constitutes worldmaking This worldmaking conceptualizes Blackness as capacious relational beyond the normative terms of recognition Blackness as a condition of oneness Reading for poetic aliveness then becomes a means of exploring Black being rather than nonbeing and animates the ethical question how to be In this way Quashie offers a Black feminist philosophy of being which is nothing less than a philosophy of the becoming of the Black world
