Newspaper Report Template:

Convergent Journalism Woody Bing Liu, 2021-06-28 Convergent Journalism is an online news system that uses a range of media and methods to collect and present information. With the advent and growth of the Internet, this form of news has been flourishing globally and has become the mainstream in China. In 2014, the Chinese Government established media convergence as a national strategy. This book offers a panoramic view of the theories and practice of Convergent Journalism in a Chinese media landscape. Drawing on a plethora of cases, the author introduces concepts, subjects and processes and elaborates on media components including text, visuals, audio and video. In addition, he discusses the application of search engine optimization, hyperlinks in reporting, user interaction and user creation of content. Aside from providing an in-depth theoretical analysis, the book provides much guidance for practitioners. Students, scholars and professionals of communication studies, journalism and media studies will benefit from this book. Broadcast News Workshop '99 Proceedings

Darpa, 1999-06-29 The Wedding Report Hans-Jürg Suter, 1993-09-01 Traditional text types or genres are complex linguistic, sociocultural and cognitive phenomena that can only be analysed in flexible interdisciplinary frameworks fusing structural and process-oriented approaches and combining quantitative description with qualitative interpretation and evaluation. The theoretical and methodological implications of the prototypical text type concept which is developed in this book are explored in an exhaustive case study of a representative ie prototypical genre, the wedding report, a conventional type of news report published in local English newspapers. The distinctive contextual and textual features, situational context, text production processes, function, thematic structure and form on the macro and microlevel are analysed synchronically and diachronically. The linguistic findings are integrated into a comprehensive view of the interplay between the genre as a linguistic frame and its sociocultural context. The study puts special emphasis on addressing the methodological problems arising from the inherent fuzziness of traditional text types and can thus serve as a detailed working model of genre analysis designed to be adapted to the specific requirements of similar studies. The Civil Power of the News Jackie

Harrison, 2019-10-18 This landmark book is concerned with the civil power of the news. This power can be seen in the ways the news engages with public sentiment through a focus on three invariant civil concerns: identity, legitimacy and risk. The book analyses how news stories engage with these concerns to make civil and anti-civil judgements which influence public sentiment and determine the boundaries we place and maintain around the society we live in. Through historical and contemporary examples of this boundary shaping and maintenance, The Civil Power of the News presents a bold and original account of the architecture of news, the influence it has on our conceptions of civility and ultimately the power it wields.

Reporting Thailand's Southern Conflict Phansasiri Kularb,2016-02-12 Since 2004 Thailand s southern border provinces have been plagued by violence There are a wide array of explanations for this violence from the revival of Malay nationalist movements and the influence from the global trend of radical Islam to the power play among the regional underground crime syndicates politicians and state authorities The disparate interpretations signal the dynamic and complex discursive contention of this damaging and enduring conflict and this book looks at how this is played out in the Thai media and with what possible consequences In analysing the southern conflict coverage the book presents the deficiencies in news coverage as produced by four news organisations of different natures across a seven year review period and discusses the professional practices that hinder journalism from serving as a fair arena for healthy and rational democratic debates Based on in depth interviews with news workers it argues that Thai journalism is not always monolithic and static as shown in the discursive shifts in news content the variations of journalistic practices and news workers disparate stances on the conflict The book goes on to highlight the less immediately apparent difficulties of political conflict reporting such as the subtle patterns of intimidation and media manipulation as well as the challenges of countering socially prevailing hegemonic beliefs in Thai society Exploring the political contingencies and socio cultural influences at play this book provides an in depth study of journalism s role in politics in Thailand and is of interest to students and scholars of Southeast Asian Politics Media Studies and Peace and Conflict Studies
