prohibited the public carry of commonly used firearms for personal defence. Nor have they generally required law-abiding, responsible citizens to 'demonstrate a special need for self-protection distinguishable from that of the general community' to carry arms in public."

The New York law, Thomas wrote, also violated the 14th amendment, which made second amendment rights applicable to the states.

Biden pointed to the longevity of New York gun laws and to past supreme court acceptance of the need to regulate gun ownership.

Biden added: "As the late [conservative] justice [Antonin] Scalia recognised, the second amendment is not absolute. For centuries, states have regulated who may purchase or possess weapons, the types of weapons they may use and the places they may carry those weapons. The courts have upheld these regulations."

"I call on Americans across the country to make their voices heard on gun safety. Lives are on the line."

The ruling has profound implications for the safety and conduct of up to 83 million people in New York and seven other states plus Washington DC with similar "proper cause" laws. They include heavily populated states, such as California and New Democratic and Republican senators have since agreed a framework for gun reform. Yesterday Mr

McConnell, the Republican leader of the Senate, said the proposals do "lay one finger on the second amendment" and would make the rules "safer, but any gun legislation I'll face strong headwinds, a potential to blow all the way out" McConnell helped
