No Peace For Amelia Amelia Pim :

No Peace for Amelia Siobhán Parkinson, 2012-08-29 It's 1916 but Amelia Pim's thoughts are on Frederick Goodbody and not on the war in Europe Then Frederick enlists The pacifist Quaker community is shocked but Amelia is secretly proud of her hero and goes to the quayside to wave him farewell For her friend MaryAnn there are problems too with her brother's involvement in the Easter Rising What will become of the two young men and what effect will it have on the lives of Amelia and MaryAnn A story of conflict hope and courage Sequel to the No 1 Bestseller AMELIA Irish Children's Literature and Culture Keith O'Sullivan, Valerie Coghlan, 2011-03-17 Irish Children's Literature and Culture looks critically at Irish writing for children from the 1980s to the present examining the work of many writers and illustrators and engaging with major genres forms and issues including the gothic the speculative picturebooks ethnicity and globalization It contextualizes modern Irish children's literature in relation to Irish mythology and earlier writings as well as in relation to Irish writing for adults thereby demonstrating the complexity of this fascinating area What constitutes a national literature is rarely straightforward and it is especially complex when discussing writing for young people in an Irish context Until recently there was only a slight body of work that could be classified as Irish children's literature in comparison with Ireland's contribution to adult literature in the twentieth century The contributors to the volume examine a range of texts in relation to contemporary literary and cultural theory and children's literature internationally raising provocative questions about the future of the topic Irish Children's Literature and Culture is essential reading for those interested in Irish literature culture sociology childhood and children's literature Valerie Coghlan Church of Ireland College of Education Dublin is a librarian and lecturer She is a former co editor of Bookbird An International Journal of Children's Literature She has published widely on Irish children's literature and co edited several books on the topic She is a former board member of the IRSL and a founder member of the Irish Society for the Study of Children's Literature Children's Books Ireland and IBBY Ireland Keith O'Sullivan lectures in English at the Church of Ireland College of Education Dublin He is a founder member of the Irish Society for the Study of Children's Literature a former member of the board of directors of Children's Books Ireland and past chair of the Children's Books Ireland Bisto Book of the Year Awards He has published on the works of Philip Pullman and Emily Brontë

Discourses of Home and Homeland in Irish Children's Fiction 1990-2012 Ciara Ní Bhroin, 2021-05-22 In the context of changing constructs of home and of childhood since the mid twentieth century this book examines discourses of home and homeland in Irish children's fiction from 1990 to 2012 a time of dramatic change in Ireland spanning the rise and fall of the Celtic Tiger and of unprecedented growth in Irish children's literature Close readings of selected texts by five award winning authors are linked to social intellectual and political changes in the period covered and draw on postcolonial feminist cultural and children's literature theory highlighting the political and ideological dimensions of home and the value of children's literature as a lens through which to view culture and society as well as an imaginative space where young people can engage with complex ideas relevant to their lives and the world in which they live Examining the works of O R Melling Kate Thompson Eoin Colfer Siobh n Parkinson and Siobhan Dowd Ciara N Bhroin argues that Irish children s literature changed at this time from being a vehicle that largely promoted hegemonic ideologies of home in post independence Ireland to a site of resistance to complacent notions of home in Celtic Tiger Ireland

The Guns of Easter Gerard Whelan,2013-08-16 It is 1916 and Europe is at war From the poverty of the Dublin slums twelve year old Jimmy Conway sees it all as glorious and loves the British Army for which his father is fighting But when war comes to his own streets Jimmy s loyalties are divided The rebels occupy the General Post Office and other parts of the city and Jimmy s uncle is among them Dublin s streets are destroyed business comes to a halt In an attempt to find food for his family Jimmy crosses the city avoiding the shooting weaving through the army patrols hoping to make it home before curfew But his quest is not easy and danger threatens at every corner

Irish Childhoods Pádraic Whyte,2011-05-25 While much has been written about Irish culture s apparent obsession with the past and with representing childhood few critics have explored in detail the position of children s fiction within such discourses This book serves to redress these imbalances illuminating both the manner in which children s texts engage with complex cultural discourses in contemporary Ireland and the significant contribution that children s novels and films can make to broader debates concerning Irish identity at the end of the twentieth and beginning of the twenty first centuries Through close analysis of specific books and films published or produced since 1990 Irish Childhoods offers an insight into contrasting approaches to the representation of Irish history and childhood in recent children s fiction Each chapter interrogates the unique manner in which an author or filmmaker engages with twentieth century Irish history from a contemporary perspective and reveals that constructions of childhood in Irish children s fiction are often used to explore aspects of Ireland s past and present

Studies in Children's Literature, 1500-2000 Mary Shine Thompson,2004 Ranging from the fundamental question whether a children s literature is possible or what its formal and contextual parameters might be to the exigent issues of contemporary cultural studies this essay collection inserts children s literature into literary theoretical and historical debate
