The Boston Medical and Surgical Journal ,1913 Pop Culture Freaks Dustin Kidd, 2018-03-05 Love it or hate it popular culture permeates every aspect of contemporary society In this accessibly written introduction to the sociology of popular culture Dustin Kidd provides the tools to think critically about the cultural soup served daily by film television music print media and the internet Utilizing each chapter to present core topical and timely examples Kidd highlights the tension between inclusion and individuality that lies beneath mass media and commercial culture using this tension as a point of entry to an otherwise expansive topic He systematically considers several dimensions of identity race class gender sexuality disability to provide a broad overview of the field that encompasses classical and contemporary theory original data topical and timely examples and a strong pedagogical focus on methods Pop Culture Freaks encourages students to develop further research questions and projects from the material Both quantitative and qualitative analyses are brought to bear in Kidd s examination of the labor force for cultural production the representations of identity in cultural objects and the surprising differences in how various audiences consume and use mass culture in their everyday lives Man's Best Friends - True Stories of the World's Most Heroic Dogs John McShane, 2012-07-27 For thousands of years men and women have known who to turn to in times of trouble a dog All over the world dogs have risked and often lost their lives to look after the human beings they care for Their intelligence devotion and astonishing courage to help humans in distress on countless occasions almost defies belief Their stories range from Roselle the Labrador who led her blind owner to safety from the carnage of the World Trade Centre to the legends of Balto and Togo two of the huskies who traversed over 1 000 kilometres of snow and ice to bring life saving medicine to an isolated town and Swansea Jack the black Labrador who rescued almost 30 people from drowning and who had a statue erected in his honour Many of the dogs featured in this book have been specially trained to help humans a task they eagerly set about regardless of the physical risk they face as a result Then there are the family pets who when danger threatens react with total disregard for their own wellbeing caring only about one thing protecting the humans they love Editorial Cartoon Awards 1922-1997 Heinz-D. Fischer, 2011-04-20 The School of Journalism at Columbia University has awarded the Pulitzer Prize since 1917 Nowadays there are prizes in 21 categories from the fields of journalism literature and music The Pulitzer Prize Archive presents the history of this award from its beginnings to the
