

Autobiography Rough Draft

My name is Samantha Rose Peluchette and I was born 12 weeks premature on January 3, 1992 in Allegheny General Hospital at 9:36 pm. When I was born I weighed 2 lbs. 13 oz. and I could fit in my dad's hand. My mother, Hope Edwards, was 15 years old and my dad, Daniel Peluchette, was 19 years old. I was in the hospital in an incubator until April because I was born so early.

My mother grew up in Wexford, Pa and went to Pine Richland High School. My dad grew up in Saxonburg, Pa and went to Deer Lakes High School. My grandma, great-grandparents, aunts, and uncles on my mother's side of the family still live in or around Wexford. My mom's father lives in New Castle, Pa. My dad's parents both passed away before I met them, but they lived in Saxonburg, Pa. My dad's brother lives in Tarentum and my dad's aunts and uncles and my great-grandma live in Grove City, Pa. On my mother's side, my great-grandma was Slovakian and my great-grandpa was Polish, German, and Native American. On my dad's side of the family, everyone is Italian. On my mom's side of the family, everyone has been living in western Pennsylvania for as long as any of us can remember, but my grandma says that my great-great-great-grandparents came to America from Poland and Germany. On my dad's side of the family I don't know very many of my family members, so I'm not sure how they came to live in Grove City, Pa.

After I was born, my mom and dad separated and I went to live with my great-grandma until I was seven years old. While I lived with my great-grandma, I went to North Allegheny School District, went to a Baptist church every Sunday, and played with my friends. When I was seven, I moved in with my mom and my now step-dad, Jim. This

Autobiographical Writing by Early Modern Hispanic Women Elizabeth Teresa Howe, 2016-04-08 Women's life writing in general has too often been ignored dismissed or relegated to a separate category in those few studies of the genre that include it The present work addresses these issues and offers a countervailing argument that focuses on the contributions of women writers to the study of autobiography in Spanish during the early modern period There are indeed examples of autobiographical writing by women in Spain and its New World empire evident as early as the fourteenth century Memorias penned by Doña Leonor López de Córdoba and continuing through the seventeenth century Cartas of Sor Juana Inés de la Cruz What sets these accounts apart the author shows are the variety of forms adopted by each woman to tell her life and the circumstances in which she adapts her narrative to satisfy the presence of male critics whether ecclesiastic or political actual or imagined who would dismiss or even alter her life story Analyzing how each of these women viewed her life and conversely how their contemporaries both male and female received and sometimes edited her account Howe reveals the tension in the texts between telling a life and telling a lie
