Matthew gives the genealogy of Jesus Christ, tracing his lineage back to Abraham. When Joseph is betrothed to Mary, an engaged couple, and she is pregnant, he is told to marry her. Matthew then tells the story of the birth of Jesus, who is born to Mary and Joseph in Bethlehem. The angels appear to the shepherds, and the wise men follow the star to the manger.	Matthew shares the Sermon on the Mount, one of the most famous teachings of Jesus. It includes the Beatitudes, the Lord's Prayer, and the Parable of the Sower. Matthew also shares the Parable of the Sheep and the Goats.	Of the 18 miracles recorded, Matthew tells of ten that are unique to his Gospel. These include the healing of the blind man, the healing of the deaf man, the healing of the man with the withered hand, the healing of the man with the demon, the healing of the man with the fever, the healing of the man with the palsy, the healing of the man with the dropsy, the healing of the man with the leprosy, the healing of the man with the blindness, and the healing of the man with the dumbness.	Matthew's account of the Parable of the Sower is the only one of the four Gospels. It is the only one that is written in the first person, and it is the only one that is written in the first person singular. It is the only one that is written in the first person singular, and it is the only one that is written in the first person singular.	Matthew recounts the 10 signs of the end of the world, including the signs of the times, the signs of the Son of Man, and the signs of the Kingdom of God. He also shares the Parable of the Ten Virgins, the Parable of the Talents, and the Parable of the Sheep and the Goats.
