States. Congress,1945 Popular Music and the Poetics of Self in Fiction ,2021-11-29 Popular Music and the Poetics of Self in Fiction explores the various links between the self and popular music in contemporary fiction In the novels discussed in this volume musical references go far beyond creating a tapestry of sound they make literary characters come alive by giving an account of the physiological and psychological effects of their musical experiences and of their ways of life in different sub cultural and social groups With plots revolving around songs and albums musicians and bands and fans and scenes the thematic focus on the self encompasses the relation of musical taste and identity construction popular music s function as a medium of individual and collective memory and its uses in everyday life across decades spaces and genres

Ancestral Voices John Mears,2010-08-31 Ancestral Voices is multi generational epic that traces the histories of several families from the earliest settlement of America to contemporary times The main conflict of the story develops from a dispute between two brothers in the wake of the War of Independence that has disastrous as well as joyous consequences almost two centuries later for some of their descendants when the family is reconnected The novel begins in 1969 the height of the Vietnam War The central character Katharine Carter Harrison about to enter Yale s first coed class struggles with her identity which is an amalgam of her Connecticut father and her Virginia mother and with the fate of her beloved brother who enlists to fight in Vietnam When a distant cousin Aaron Keeler unexpectedly enters the lives of Katharine and her brother it seems that some perverse hand of destiny is at work as well as a curse that has run through the family for centuries Ancestral Voices is a compelling love story a tale of generational revenge and a saga where the main characters suffer from obsessions with their ancestral past and a terrifying nexus between fiction and reality

Other Lives Jenn Dashney,2020-01-31 Truths remain true whether or not we believe in them Nova Daniels is missing unintentionally Without a trace seventeen year old Nova sets off on a cross country journey Trying to stay one step ahead of the truth and those who may be searching for her She takes on new personas Other Lives finding love and maybe herself along the way but what she won t admit may kill her Nova has never believed in the paranormal but neither the voice whispering in her ear nor the women of The Circle concern themselves with what she does or does not believe Will the boy she s been dreaming about be the key She ll have to reclaim her true life before time runs out
