Possible Essays For Grade 10 Economics November 2014:

Generation Jobless? P. Vogel, 2015-03-05 Offering guidance on the opportunities and threats for future generations and featuring interviews with business leaders this book provides a constructive look at change. It directs the youth to become job creators not job seekers and to approach the corporate and political worlds with an entrepreneurial mind set. The econocracy Joe Earle, Cahal Moran, Zach Ward-Perkins, 2016-11-03 One hundred years ago the idea of the economy didn't exist. Now improving the economy has come to be seen as perhaps the most important task facing modern societies. Politics and policymaking are conducted in the language of economics and economic logic shapes how political issues are thought about and addressed. The result is that the majority of citizens who cannot speak this language are locked out of politics while political decisions are increasingly devolved to experts. The econocracy explains how economics came to be seen this way and the damaging consequences. It opens up the discipline and demonstrates its inner workings to the wider public so that the task of reclaiming democracy can begin. Breakaway Learners Karen Gross, 2017 This powerful book explores how institutions of higher education can successfully serve breakaway students: first generation, low income students who are trying to break away from the past in order to create a more secure future. The gap between low SES and high SES students persists as efforts to close it have not met with great success. In this provocative book Gross offers a new approach to addressing inequities by focusing on students who have succeeded despite struggling with the impacts of poverty and trauma. Gross draws on her experience as a college president to outline practical steps that postsecondary institutions can take to create structures of support and opportunity that build reciprocal trust. Students must trust their institutions and professors; professors must trust their students and eventually students must learn to trust themselves. A must read for academics, policymakers, teachers, social service providers, police chiefs, and government officials. Martha Kanter, former under secretary, U.S. Department of Education. We need to pay attention to what Karen Gross says. Read this book then share it. Mark Huddleston, president, University of New Hampshire. Karen Gross offers practical ideas based on her research and more importantly on her substantial leadership in assisting our nation's colleges and universities serving at-risk students. Marybeth Gasman, University of Pennsylvania. Let's Be Reasonable Jonathan Marks, 2023-01-31 A conservative college professor's compelling defense of liberal education. Not so long ago conservative intellectuals such as William F. Buckley Jr. believed universities were worth fighting for. Today conservatives seem more inclined to burn them down. In Let's Be Reasonable conservative political theorist and professor Jonathan Marks finds in liberal education an antidote to this despair, arguing that the true purpose of college is to encourage people to be reasonable and revealing why the health of our democracy is at stake. Drawing on the ideas of John Locke and other thinkers, Marks presents the case for why now more than ever conservatives must not give up on higher education. He recognizes that professors and administrators frequently adopt the language and priorities of the left but he explains why conservative nightmare visions of liberal persecution and indoctrination bear little resemblance to what actually goes on in college classrooms Marks examines why advocates for liberal education struggle to offer a coherent defense of themselves against their conservative critics and demonstrates why such a defense must rest on the cultivation of reason and of pride in being reasonable More than just a campus battlefield guide Let s Be Reasonable recovers what is truly liberal about liberal education the ability to reason for oneself and with others and shows why the liberally educated person considers reason to be more than just a tool for scoring political points Blended Learning

Born to Choose John H. Falk, 2017-09-05 Born to Choose is John H. Falk's compelling account of why and how we make the endless set of choices we do every second of every day of our lives. Synthesizing research from across the biological and social sciences, Falk argues that human choice making is an evolutionarily ancient and complex process. He suggests that all our choices are influenced by very basic and early evolving needs and that ultimately each choice is designed to support survival in the guise of perceived well-being. This engaging book breaks new intellectual ground and enhances our understanding not just of human choice making but human behavior overall.

Fires Next Time Peter Christoff, 2023-11-28 Following a three-year drought and during the hottest and driest year on record, a flume of scorching air set the Australian continent aflame. The Black Summer fires were unprecedented. Over six months in 2019-20, they burned more than 24 million hectares of Australia's southern and eastern forests, one of the largest areas burnt anywhere on Earth in a single event. The fires killed 33 people and 430 more died as an indirect consequence, and they caused unfathomable harm to native species. Their economic ramifications were extensive and enduring. State and federal governments and communities were under-prepared for that inferno and its many impacts. Yet global warming is increasing the likelihood of such events. The Fires Next Time offers a comprehensive assessment of the Black Summer fires. Its contributors analyse the event from many vantage points and disciplines: historical, climate, scientific, ecological, economic, and political. They assess its impacts on human health and wellbeing, on native plants and animals, and on fire management and emergency response. They consider whether reactions could have been different and what is needed to improve our handling of future bushfires. Contributors include Sophie Aitken, Danielle Celermajor, Andrew Dowdy, Robyn Eckersley, Michael Shawn Fletcher, Tom Griffiths, Michael Grose, Pham Van Ha, David Karoly, Rod Keenan, Andrew King, Tom Kompas, Christine Li, Greg Mullins, Stephen Pyne, Libby Rumpff, David Schlosberg, Kevin Tolhurst, Sotiris Vardoulakis, Iain Walker, and Brendan Wintle.
