Greetings from Bury Park (Blinded by the Light Movie Tie-In) Sarfraz Manzoor, 2009-03-12 The inspiration for the smash Sundance hit soon to be a major motion picture Blinded by the Light The acclaimed memoir about the power of Bruce Springsteen's music on a young Pakistani boy growing up in Britain in the 1970s Sarfraz Manzoor was two years old when in 1974 he emigrated from Pakistan to Britain with his mother brother and sister Sarfraz spent his teenage years in a constant battle trying to reconcile being both British and Muslim trying to fit in at school and at home But it was when his best friend introduced him to the music of Bruce Springsteen that his life changed completely From the age of sixteen on after the moment he heard the harmonica and opening lines to The River Springsteen became his personal muse a lens through which he was able to view the rest of his life Both a tribute to Springsteen and a story of personal discovery Greetings from Bury Park is a warm irreverent and exceptionally perceptive memoir about how music transcends religion and race Spanish

Fiction in the Digital Age C. Henseler, 2011-10-24 This book applies theoretical models that reflect the mediated hybrid and nomadic global scenes within which GenX artists and writers live think and work Henseler touches upon critical insights in comparative media studies cultural studies and social theory and uses sidebars to travel along multiple voices facts figures and faces Rosewater (Movie Tie-in Edition) Maziar Bahari, Aimee Molloy, 2011-06-07 NOW A MAJOR MOTION

PICTURE DIRECTED BY JON STEWART Previously published as Then They Came for Me When Maziar Bahari left London in June 2009 to cover Iran's presidential election he assured his pregnant fiancée Paola that he'd be back in just a few days a week at most Little did he know as he kissed her good bye that he would spend the next three months in Iran's most notorious prison enduring brutal interrogation sessions at the hands of a man he knew only by his smell Rosewater For the Bahari family wars coups and revolutions are not distant concepts but intimate realities they have suffered for generations Maziar's father was imprisoned by the shah in the 1950s and his sister by Ayatollah Khomeini in the 1980s Alone in his cell at Evin Prison fearing the worst Maziar draws strength from his memories of the courage of his father and sister in the face of torture and hears their voices speaking to him across the years He dreams of being with Paola in London and imagines all that she and his rambunctious resilient eighty-four-year-old mother must be doing to campaign for his release During the worst of his encounters with Rosewater he silently repeats the names of his loved ones calling on their strength and love to protect him and praying he will be released in time for the birth of his first child A riveting heart wrenching memoir Rosewater offers insight into the past seventy years of regime change in Iran as well as the future of a country where the democratic impulses of the youth continually clash with a government that becomes more totalitarian with each passing day An intimate and fascinating account of contemporary Iran it is also the moving and wonderfully written story of one family's extraordinary courage in the face of repression I really connected to Maziar's story It's a personal story but one with universal appeal about what it means to be free Jon Stewart An important and elegant book a prison memoir enlarged into a family history The New Republic Clear and compelling engaging and informative a gripping tribute to human dedication and a cogent indictment of a corrupt regime Washington Independent Review of Books Rosewater is not only a fascinating human exploration into Bahari s personal experience it also provides insight into the shared experience of those affected by repressive governments everywhere Mother Jones A damning account Rosewater turns a lens not only on Iran s surreal justice system but on the history and culture that helped produce it The Washington Post Rosewater is a unique achievement It is a story not just of political cruelty a subject Bahari treats movingly but also about the two poles of Iranian political culture bent together in upheaval The Guardian UK A beautifully written account of life in Iran filled with insights not only into the power struggles and political machinations but into the personal emotional lives of the people living in that complicated country Maziar Bahari is a brave man and a wonderful storyteller Fareed Zakaria Bowker Annual Library

The Publishers Weekly ,2009 The New Biographical Dictionary of Film David Thomson,2010 Thomson independent scholar writing of The Biographical Dictionary of Film aka A Biographical Dictionary of the Cinema 1975 edition described it as a personal opinionated and obsessive biographical dictionary of the cinema Thirty five years and several editions later that description still holds true of this expanded work The new dictionary summarizes salient facts about its subjects lives and discusses their film credits in terms of the quality of the filmmakers work In ambition it has competitors including Leslie Halliwell s various editions of Halliwell s Filmgoers Companion 12th ed 1997 and Halliwell s Who s Who in the Movies edited by John Walker 4th ed rev and updated 2006 which cover films and technical terms categories not included in Thomson s but whose entries are neutral and exceedingly brief Additionally Francophile Richard Roud s edited Cinema A Critical Dictionary The Major Filmmakers 2 v 1980 is as passionate a work as Thomson s but narrower in scope with entries written by various experts rather than only by Roud Finally the multivolume magnum opus The International Dictionary of Films and Filmmakers 4th ed 2000 ed by T Pendergast and S Pendergast 2nd ed ed by N Thomas v 1 CH May 91 1st ed ed by C Lyon v 1 2 CH Jan 85 v 3 CH Apr 87 v 4 5 CH Jun 88 covers everything films directors actors writers and production artists with generous measured scholarly entries and lavish illustrations However it looms large and heavy unlike the handy one volume work by Thomson Arguably Thomson s work for its scope is the most fun the most convenient and the most engaging

Popular Culture Life Between Assimilation and Otherness explores LGBTQIA Jewish American identity in the United States and the queer Jewish stranger figures who live in between incorporation and estrangement Amy Tziporah Karp establishes that despite the near ubiquitous portrayal of Jewish American assimilation as a finished project completed in the wake of World War II in academic disciplines and throughout popular culture many LGBTQIA Jewish figures in contemporary popular culture inhabit stranger positionalities In these stranger spaces characters are forced to either perpetually attempt to assimilate or inhabit this interstitial stranger identity that is often viewed as a nowhere or homeless space Those who pursue assimilating endlessly try to fit in to no avail such as Jenny Schecter from Showtime's popular The L Word who is ultimately killed off on the show possibly murdered by her LGBTQIA community of friends Karp shows that those who attempt to make a home in a stranger positionality align themselves with other estranged and othered peoples such as characters throughout Sarah Schulman's novels and that this constitutes an ethical stance against the ways in which assimilation often inadvertently supports the workings of violent hegemonies in the United States
