Returns

1. Try to ascertain if the problem is caused by faulty software or faulty hardware. For example if the disc has obvious damage such as scratches this is likely to be the cause of the problem.
2. Check the purchase date of the unit. If this is longer than one month you can refer the customer to the official warranty number for assistance. If purchased over 12 months ago the consumer must be directed through Sony's customer care line. The number is 0800 000277.
3. Check for obvious signs of accidental damage to the unit, such as scratches, dents or chips. If this is the case refer the customer to the official warranty for assistance.
4. If the unit is deemed to be faulty, complete an official PSP returns sticker-form in full and swap the faulty unit for a new one.
5. Check the contents of the faulty unit's box for any missing components such as memory sticks or cables. If there are found to be missing take the components from the new unit and put them in the box with the faulty one for return to Sony. Ensure the box is then sealed with the official returns form-sticker and returned to Sony in the normal way.
