Psy De Banlieue:

The Making of the Banlieue Luuk Slooter, 2019-06-21 This book studies and disaggregates the crisis of the suburbs in Paris through the stories of inhabitants in 4000sud a French suburban neighborhood These stories have become pressing in the aftermath of the recent wave of terrorist attacks in France The French banlieues are some of the most prominent and infamous examples of urban neighborhoods affected by vandalism rioting criminality and chronic poverty Based on extensive ethnographic research the book explores the making of the French suburban crisis as constituted both externally by state actors and internally by young people at the street corner It reveals how the French state s understanding of banlieue violence and subsequent policy measures contribute to the creation and hardening of boundaries between us and them The book takes the reader on a journey from the city center of Paris to the heart of neighborhood 4000sud It unveils how young suburban residents try to cope simultaneously with the negative images imposed on them from the outside and the disciplinary expectations of their peers on the street In search for identity and dignity they navigate life through diverging strategies they escape the neighborhood contest stereotypical images through violent protest or confirm and act out the image of gangster from the ghetto Drawing on Urban Sociology Human Geography and Cultural Anthropology this book offers new analytical vocabularies to understand the connections between place making processes social identity dynamics and violent performances The book is written for a broad audience of students scholars and policy makers interested in contemporary sub urban violence in Europe

Cultural Anxieties Stéphanie Larchanche, 2020-03-13 Cultural Anxieties is a gripping ethnography about Centre Minkowska a transcultural psychiatry clinic in Paris France From her unique position as both observer and staff member anthropologist St phanie Larchanch explores the challenges of providing non stigmatizing mental healthcare to migrants In particular she documents how restrictive immigration policies limited resources and social anxieties about the other combine to constrain the work of state social and health service providers who refer migrants to the clinic and who tend to frame migrant suffering as a problem of integration that requires cultural expertise to address In this context Larchanch describes how staff members at Minkowska struggle to promote cultural competence which offers a culturally and linguistically sensitive approach to care while simultaneously addressing the broader structural factors that impact migrants mental health

Ultimately Larchanch identifies practical routes for improving caregiving practices and promoting hospitality including professional training action research and advocacy

Turkish immigration, art and narratives of home in France
 Annedith Schneider, 2016-07-15 Turkish immigration art and narratives of home in France argues for a cultural rather than a sociological or economic approach to understanding how immigrants become part of their new country In contrast to the language of integration or assimilation which evaluates an immigrant's success in relation to a static endpoint e.g. integrated or not settling is a more useful metaphor Immigrants and their descendants are not definitively settled but rather engage in an ongoing process of adaptation In order to understand this process of settling it is important to pay particular attention to immigrants not only as consumers but also as producers of culture since artistic production provides a unique and nuanced perspective on immigrants' sense of home and belonging especially within the multi-generational process of settling In order to anchor these larger theoretical questions in actual experience this book looks at music theatre and literature by artists of Turkish immigrant origin in France

Le Murmure des fantômes
 Boris Cyrulnik, 2003-01-01 Marilyn Monroe n'a pas connu la tendresse enfant Elle est devenue fantôme Hans Christian Andersen lui a pu rendre chaud L'affection est un besoin tellement vital que lorsqu'on en est privé on s'attache intensément tout vivement qui fait revenir un brin de vie en nous quel qu'en soit le prix Ceux qui refusent de rester prisonniers d'une chirurgie traumatique doivent s'en libérer pour revenir à la vie Ils en font même un outil pour arracher du bonheur Dans ce livre Boris Cyrulnik raconte comment le fracas du passé murmure encore chez le grand enfant qui tisse de nouveaux liens affectifs et sociaux Et comment l'appétence sexuelle l'adolescence constitue un moment sensible dans l'évolution de la représentation de soi Attitude nouvelle face à la souffrance psychique la résilience propose de construire ce processus de libération Ce livre est un véritable message d'espoir Boris Cyrulnik a publié aux éditions Odile Jacob Les Nourritures affectives L'Ensorcellement du monde Un merveilleux malheur et Les Vilains Petits Canards qui ont tous deux de grands succès
