Psychward Stephen B. Seager, 1991 An intern's riveting eyewitness story of life behind the locked doors of a psychiatric ward After eight years running a big city emergency room Dr Stephen Seager began training as a psychiatrist With the tension of a thriller and the taut emotional power of a documentary Dr Seager's book describes the mental health care system and a doctor's education in the face of suffering and strength of his patients Psychward Stephen B. Seager, 1992 The riveting true story of an aspiring psychiatrist's year of discovery frustration and triumph this shockingly candid memoir is a real life One Flew Over the Cuckoo's Nest Emotionally charged Kirkus Compulsory Interventions in Psychiatry: an Overview on the Current Situation and Recommendations for Prevention and Adequate Use Christian Huber, Andres Ricardo Schneeberger, 2021-02-24 Narrative and the Cultural Construction of Illness and Healing Cheryl Mattingly, Linda C. Budson, I. Barofsky, 2012-12-06 The purpose of this book is to present an integrated approach to the treatment of the chronic psychiatric patient living in the community This requires that topics as diverse as pharmacokinetics psychotherapy and community organization be appropriately coordinated Such an approach is partly complicated by the wide range of differences among patients in terms of social skills intellectual capacity and psychiatric diagnosis In addition unclear insular or overlapping roles of various mental health disciplines further confound integrated treatment efforts Given such complexity any single clinician's point of view is subject to the distortion inherent in specialization Too often a volume in the field of mental health focuses either on only one aspect or presents only one clinician's unique perspective of a task that is in fact multifaceted We have tried to avoid this pitfall by having representatives from many of the concerned professions present a variety of treatment approaches and associated issues in one text Further the editors have attempted to illuminate the relevant clinical and or administrative interrelationship between the subjects of each section through a succinct introductory commentary The book is divided into five sections The first section represents an attempt to address some of the interactive sociological psychological and pharmacological background issues common to all at tempts at treatment of this population GeNeDis 2020 Panayiotis Vlamos, 2022-01-01 The 4th World Congress on Genetics Geriatrics and Neurodegenerative Diseases Research GeNeDis 2020 focuses on the latest major challenges in scientific research new drug targets the development of novel biomarkers new

Hemingway's Widow Timothy Christian, 2022-03-01 A stunning portrait of the complicated woman who becomes Ernest Hemingway's fourth wife tracing her adventures before she meets Ernest exploring the tumultuous years of their marriage and evoking her merry widowhood as she shapes Hemingway's literary legacy Mary Welsh a celebrated wartime journalist during the London Blitz and the liberation of Paris meets Ernest Hemingway in May 1944 He becomes so infatuated with Mary that he asks her to marry him the third time they meet although they are married to other people Eventually she succumbs to Ernest's campaign and in the last days of the war joined him at his estate in Cuba Through Mary's eyes we see Ernest Hemingway in a fresh light Their turbulent marriage survives his cruelty and abuse perhaps because of their sexual compatibility and her essential contribution to his writing She reads and types his work each day and makes plot suggestions She becomes crucial to his work and he depends upon her critical reading of his work to know if he has it right We watch the Hemingways as they travel to the ski country of the Dolomites commute to Harry's Bar in Venice attend bullfights in Pamplona and Madrid go on safari in Kenya in the thick of the Mau Mau Rebellion and fish the blue waters of the gulf stream off Cuba in Ernest's beloved boat Pilar We see Ernest fall in love with a teenaged Italian countess and wonder at Mary's tolerance of the affair We witness Ernest's sad decline and Mary's efforts to avoid the stigma of suicide by claiming his death was an accident In the years following Ernest's death Mary devotes herself to his literary legacy negotiating with Castro to reclaim Ernest's manuscripts from Cuba publishing one third of his work posthumously She supervises Carlos Baker's biography of Ernest sues A E Hotchner to try and prevent him from telling the story of Ernest's mental decline and spends years writing her memoir in her penthouse overlooking the New York skyline Her story is one of an opinionated woman who smokes Camels drinks gin swears like a man sings like Edith Piaf loves passionately and experiments with gender fluidity in her extraordinary life with Ernest This true story reads like a novel and the reader will be hard pressed not to fall for Mary

Abled Andrew Akerman MD, 2024-08-14 Have you ever undergone a life altering experience the kind that most people would shudder to think of These events occur daily and as much empathy you may carry for others your primary wish is likely that it will never happen to you But such experiences shape our personalities and characters The tragic event is not nearly as important as how we react to it and eventually learn to deal with and ultimately conquer it Abled tells the story of an ordinary boy living a relatively ordinary life until one such tragic day when his life was changed forever This personal narrative follows his path from his youth as a normal boy to the man he develops into He was far from perfect and yet filled with extreme positive energy and drive he not only learned to overcome his limitations but far surpassed anyone's expectations The journey was beyond tough and at times it seemed impossible But despite the obstacles he faced he dealt with his struggles and overcame them using them to form the future he wanted In this autobiography one man shares the way an event in his youth changed his life forever shaping the person he became building his character and developing his moral outlook
