Prospectors 2015 Universitys In South Africa:

A Short History of South Africa Gail Nattrass, 2017-11-16 South Africa is popularly perceived as the most influential nation in Africa a gateway to an entire continent for finance trade and politics and a crucial mediator in its neighbours affairs On the other hand post Apartheid dreams of progress and reform have in part collapsed into a morass of corruption unemployment and criminal violence A Short History of South Africa is a brief general account of the history of this most complicated and fascinating country from the first evidence of hominid existence to the wars of the 18th 19th and 20th centuries that led to the establishment of modern South Africa the horrors of Apartheid and the optimism following its collapse as well as the prospects and challenges for the future This readable and thorough account illustrated with maps and photographs is the culmination of a lifetime of researching and teaching the broad spectrum of South African history Nattrass s passion for her subject shines through whether she is elucidating the reader on early humans in the cradle of humankind or describing the tumultuous twentieth century processes that shaped the democracy that is South Africa today

A Scientific Bibliography of the Drakensberg, Maloti and Adjacent Lowlands Rodney Moffett, 2021-04-19 This bibliography includes scientific articles on the Drakensberg Maloti and Adjacent Lowlands published between 1808 and 2019 Although focussing on material appearing in accredited journals there is such a wealth of information in the form of unpublished yet traceable reports documents presentations and dissertations these are also included The bibliography has two parts a complete list arranged alphabetically and the same references arranged in 33 different disciplines These range from Palaeobotany with 17 entries to Rock Art with 502 entries

Cultures of Educational Leadership Paul Miller, 2016-12-13 This book explores how to be fully cross cultural and intercultural with research and theory building in educational leadership It adopts an integrated approach to the examination of common issues across and between cultures and contexts Each chapter examines an issue or a set of issues that builds on evidence from a minimum of three countries across at least two continents The data collection methods are consistent for all countries and therefore allow meaningful conclusions to be drawn across the field All six continents are represented in the book including both developing and developed countries to ensure an open dialogue and an innovative approach to lay the foundations for future research

Biotraffic Christopher Morris, 2024-10-15 Biotraffic explores the complex world of biological resource trade It takes readers inside the contemporary Ciskei region of South Africa a once notorious apartheid homeland turned extractive hub for wild medicinal plants Drawing from in depth ethnographic and archival research Christopher Morris examines the region s trade in Pelargonium sidoides a plant once contested as a tuberculosis treatment in early twentieth century Europe and now an internationally marketed remedy for the common cold The story of this trade links past and present encapsulating a larger tale about colonial legacies and their intersection with global environmental governance ambitions It also teems with a diverse cast of actors from plant harvesters and pharmaceutical companies to activist NGOs and the chiefs who have become business partners with multinational drug firms The book's analysis extends beyond considering merely the extraction and commercialization of plant resources and offers a critical examination of how demand for therapeutics intertwines with broader struggles over land and political power in South Africa Biotraffic illuminates how a distance defying trade is reshaping the sociopolitical landscape of a region a region grappling with apartheid's afterlives and the challenges of environmental and economic justice Bulletin of the National Library of South Africa, 2015 The Genocidal Gaze Elizabeth R. Baer, 2017-11-20 Examines literature and art to reveal the German genocidal gaze in Africa and the Holocaust The first genocide of the twentieth century though not well known was committed by Germans between 1904-1907 in the country we know today as Namibia where they exterminated thousands of Herero and Nama people and subjected the surviving indigenous men, women, and children to forced labor The perception of Africans as subhuman, lacking any kind of civilization, history, or meaningful religion, and the resulting justification for the violence against them is what author Elizabeth R. Baer refers to as the genocidal gaze, an attitude that was later perpetuated by the Nazis In The Genocidal Gaze From German Southwest Africa to the Third Reich Baer uses the trope of the gaze to trace linkages between the genocide of the Herero and Nama and that of the victims of the Holocaust Baer also considers the African gaze of resistance returned by the indigenous people and their leaders upon the German imperialists Baer explores the threads of shared ideology in the Herero and Nama genocide and the Holocaust concepts such as racial hierarchies, lebensraum (living space), rassenschande (racial shame), and the endgame (final solution) that were deployed by German authorities in 1904 and again in the 1930s and 1940s to justify genocide She also notes the use of shared methodology: concentration camps, death camps, intentional starvation, rape, indiscriminate killing of women and children in both instances While previous scholars have made these links between the Herero and Nama genocide and that of the Holocaust, Baer's book is the first to examine literary texts that demonstrate this connection Texts under consideration include the archive of Nama revolutionary Hendrik Witbooi, a colonial novel by German Gustav Frenssen (1906) in which the genocidal gaze conveyed an acceptance of racial annihilation, and three post-Holocaust texts by German Uwe Timm, Ghanaian Ama Ata Aidoo, and installation artist William Kentridge of South Africa that critique the genocidal gaze Baer posits that writing and reading about the gaze is an act of mediation, a power dynamic that calls those who commit genocide to account for their crimes and discloses their malignant convictions Careful reading of texts and attention to the narrative deployment of the genocidal gaze or the resistance to it establishes discursive similarities in books written both during colonialism and in the post-Holocaust era The Genocidal Gaze is an original and challenging discussion of such contemporary issues as colonial practices, the Nazi concentration camp state, European and African race relations, definitions of genocide, and postcolonial theory Moreover, Baer demonstrates the power of literary and artistic works to condone or even promote genocide or to soundly condemn it Her transnational analysis provides the groundwork for future studies of links between imperialism and genocide, links among genocides, and the devastating impact of the genocidal gaze The 2015 Regional Forecast and Urban Development Patterns Sonny Conder,1964 Extractives Industry Law in Africa Damilola S. Olawuyi,2018-09-11 The book provides a systematic examination of the legal fiscal and institutional frameworks for the commercial development of petroleum and solid mineral resources in Africa First it considers the values assumptions and guiding principles underpinning legislation and governance in Africa s extractive sector It then provides detailed and comparative evaluations of regulatory frameworks pricing local content procurement sales and contractual arrangements across African extractive industries Further the book assesses how questions of business and human rights risks accountability corporate social responsibility waste and pollution control environmental justice and participatory development have been addressed to date and how they could be addressed better in the future Enhancing readers understanding of the geography sources and scope of extractive resources in Africa the book explains how corporations can effectively identify mitigate and prevent legal and business risks when investing in African extractive industries Lastly it discusses the innovative legal strategies and tools needed to achieve a sustainable and rights based extractive industry Written in a user friendly style the book offers a valuable resource for corporations investors environmental and human rights administrators advocates policymakers judges international negotiators government officials and consultants who advise on or are interested in petroleum and solid mineral investments in Africa It also offers students and researchers an authoritative guidebook to the current state of extractive industry laws and institutions in Africa Numerous examples of how international legal norms could be used to help revitalize the underlying legal and fiscal regimes in African extractive industries to make them more robust accountable sustainable and rights based round out the coverage A Scientific Bibliography of the Waterberg, Makgabeng Plateau, Blouberg and Soutpansberg Rodney Moffet,2025-06-16 The Scientific Bibliography of the Waterberg Makgabeng Plateau Blouberg and Soutpansberg follows two similar bibliographies of other mountain areas of South Africa This bibliography is particularly relevant as it covers many disciplines in two recently delared Niospher Reserves by UNESCO namely Waterberg and Vembhe Planned Violence Elleke Boehmer,Dominic Davies,2018-11-29 This book brings the insights of social geographers and cultural historians into a critical dialogue with literary narratives of urban culture and theories of literary cultural production In so doing it explores new ways of conceptualizing the relationship between urban planning its often violent effects and literature Comparing the spatial pasts and presents of the post imperial and post colonial cities of London Delhi and Johannesburg but also including case studies of other cities such as Chicago Belfast Jerusalem and Mumbai Planned Violence investigates how that iconic site of modernity the colonial city was imagined by its planners and how this urban imagination and the cultural and social interventions that arose in response to it made violence a part of the everyday social life of its subjects Throughout however the collection also explores the extent to which literary and cultural productions might actively resist infrastructures of planned violence and imagine alternative ways of inhabiting post colonial city spaces
