Prospectors Of University Of Pretoria For 2015:

Ownership and Governance of Companies Jonathan Michie, Vishnu Padayachee, 2021-06-29 Apartheid South Africa was often thought to run in the interests of the business elite Yet 27 years after apartheid those business interests remain largely entrenched Why Did the South African business community play a role in engineering this outcome perhaps recognising the apartheid era was over and jumping ship in time Conversely the mission of the ANC was widely perceived to be to shift wealth and power into the hands of the whole community Yet despite black empowerment measures corporate ownership remains largely in white hands and certainly in the hands of an elite few even though no longer restricted to whites This picture is replicated across the global south where corporate ownership tends to be concentrated in the hands of an elite rather than being more democratically spread Why have alternative corporate forms not been pursued more vigorously with ownership in the hands of customers employees and local communities In the case of South Africa where the majority of customers and employees are black this could have delivered on the ANC s mission to replace the apartheid era with a democratic one in terms of wealth incomes and power as well as in terms of voting and civic rights This edited volume explores all these questions and looks at ways to align corporate forms with economic and social goals The chapters in this book were originally published as special issues of International Review of Applied Economics ICIE 2015 3rd International Conference on Innovation and Entrepreneurship Deresh Ramjugernath, 2015-02-24 These proceedings represent the work of researchers participating in the 3rd International Conference on Innovation and Entrepreneurship ICIE 2015 which is being co hosted by The University of KwaZulu Natal Durban and the EtheKwini Municipality Durban South Africa on the 19 20 March 2015 The ICIE Conference constitutes a valuable platform for individuals to present their research findings display their work in progress and discuss conceptual advances in many different branches of innovation and entrepreneurship in business and management At the same time it provides an important opportunity for researchers and managers to come together with peers share knowledge and exchange ideas ICIE builds on the now well established European Conference on Innovation and Entrepreneurship and allows universities outside the European Boundaries the opportunity to host an academic conference on these important topics In addition to the presentations of research the conference will feature a knowledge cafe led by Dr Shawren Singh looking at this topic How can academics focus research efforts to better serve the business and public sector communities The second day will open with a panel discussion looking at Smart cities Opportunities for Entrepreneurship and Economic growth Following an initial submission of 85 abstracts that have undergone a double blind peer review process 26 research papers 3 PhD research papers 2 work in progress papers are published in these Conference Proceedings representing research results from the Czech Republic Denmark Italy Kazakhstan Kenya Lithuania Nigeria Poland Saudi Arabia South Africa Sweden The Netherlands UK USA and Zambia Landscapes and Landforms of Botswana Frank D. Eckardt, 2022-05-17 This volume contains 22 chapters introducing a wide range of semi arid and geologic landscapes Botswana a thinly populated nation the size of France is a Southern African keystone country at the heart of the Kalahari sharing some of the major sub continental drainage basins such as the Limpopo Zambezi Orange and Okavango with its neighbouring countries The extensive Kalahari Sand surface has been sculptured by numerous past processes which have produced subtle but regional landforms consisting of extensive dunes and shorelines Incipient rifting has created the dynamic Okavango and Makgadikgadi fan basin systems which produces iconic wetlands with a world heritage status Geological outcrops in particular to the east expose highly denuded basement lithologies which produces numerous inselbergs that are home to a rich archaeological heritage The book also examines the geomorphology of mineral and water resources which sustain the economy and population and also features dedicated chapters that cover diamondiferous kimberlites caves pans dams duricrusts and wildlife Chapter 6 is available open access under a Creative Commons Attribution 4.0 International License via link.springer.com Origin and Evolution of the Cape Mountains and Karoo Basin Bastien Linol, Maarten J. de Wit, 2016-09-03 This book describes the latest research on the geological geochemical geochronological biological and geomorphic evolution of the unique and relatively pristine landscape of the Cape Mountains and the Karoo Basin a region in South Africa that is currently being targeted for shale gas exploration and development With up to date graphics maps drill core and seismic data it offers the latest observations and synthesis and highlights areas of ongoing research The work presented also considers a wider connection of the Cape Karoo system to other basins in Central Gondwana including South America thus following in the footsteps of A. L. du Toit Clearly there is still much to be learned before shale gas development can be considered and this book provides some timely perspectives A Scientific Bibliography of the Far Northern Drakensberg Rodney Moffett, 2023-04-14 This Scientific Bibliography of the Far Northern Drakensberg is a continuation by the AfriMontane Research Unit of the University of the Free State ARU to document published and other similar works on the mountains of the summer rainfall area of South Africa It follows A Scientific Bibliography of the Drakensberg Maloti and Adjacent Lowlands which was published in 2020 Moffett 2020 and which covered the area between the North Eastern Cape and the North Eastern Free State The current work extends this northward by including articles and publications dating back to 1875 E. Cohen on the Lydenburg goldfields reaching as far as the Wolkberg and Woodbush near Tzaneen in Limpopo Province Figure 1 shows the boundary of the area covered and although referred to as the Far Northern Drakensberg in this work it is identical to that described as the LMEE Limpopo Mpumalanga Eswatini Escarpment by Clarke et al 2022 Although slightly separate from the lower escarpment the mountainous Barberton and adjacent Eswatini area as well as the Leolo Mountains in eastern Sekhukhuneland are also included Details on how the boundary in figure 1 was determined are given in Clark et al 2022 Bibliographies on two further ranges in the summer rainfall area viz the Magaliesberg in Gauteng province and the Soutpansberg in Limpopo province are to be the subject of future compilations Planned Violence Elleke Boehmer, Dominic Davies, 2018-11-29 This book brings the insights of social geographers and cultural historians into a critical dialogue with literary narratives of urban culture and theories of literary cultural production In so doing it explores new ways of conceptualizing the relationship between urban planning its often violent effects and literature Comparing the spatial pasts and presents of the post imperial and post colonial cities of London Delhi and Johannesburg but also including case studies of other cities such as Chicago Belfast Jerusalem and Mumbai Planned Violence investigates how that iconic site of modernity the colonial city was imagined by its planners and how this urban imagination and the cultural and social interventions that arose in response to it made violence a part of the everyday social life of its subjects Throughout however the collection also explores the extent to which literary and cultural productions might actively resist infrastructures of planned violence and imagine alternative ways of inhabiting post colonial city spaces
