Prospectus Of 2016 In University Of Cape Town:

Tencent Min Tang, 2019-07-04 In this book author Min Tang examines the political economy of the China based leading global Internet giant Tencent Tracing the historical context and shaping forces the book illuminates Tencent's emergence as a joint creation of the Chinese state and transnational financial capital Tencent reveals interweaving axes of power on different levels particularly interactions between the global digital industry and contemporary China The expansion strategies Tencent has employed horizontal and vertical integration diversification and transnationalization speak to the intrinsic trends of capitalist reproduction and the consistent features of the political economy of communications The book also pinpoints two emerging and entangling trends transnationalization and financialization as unfolding trajectories of the global political economy Understanding Tencent's dynamics of growth helps to clarify the complex nature of China's contemporary transformation and the multifaceted characteristics of its increasingly globalized Internet industry This short and highly topical research volume is perfect for students and scholars of global media political economy and Chinese business media and communication and society Making Open Development Inclusive Matthew L. Smith, Ruhiya Kristine Seward, 2020-08-25 Drawing on ten years of empirical work and research analyses of how open development has played out in practice A decade ago a significant trend toward openness emerged in international development Open development can describe initiatives as disparate as open government open health data open science open education and open innovation The theory was that open systems related to data science and innovation would enable more inclusive processes of human development This volume drawing on ten years of empirical work and research analyzes how open development has played out in practice Places of Privilege, 2018-07-19 Places of Privilege examines dynamics of privilege and power in the construction of place in a period of the rapid social transformation of places borders and boundaries Drawing on interdisciplinary perspectives the book examines place as a site for the making and re making of privilege while considering new meanings of community and examining spaces for cultural identity and resistance Chapters point to a range of conceptual resources that can be utilised to produce critical analyses of place making As the authors point out power and privilege shape place but these dynamics are in turn shaped by the specific place based histories and social dynamics within which they are located Contributors are Lutfiye Ali Alison M Baker Paola Bilbrough Tony Birch Jora Broerse Sally Clark Josephine Cornell Yon Hsu Lou Iaquinto Karen Jackson Shose Kessi Rebecca Lyons Chris McConville Nicole Oke Amy Quayle Alexandra Ramirez Kopano Ratele Christopher C Sonn and Ram n Spaaij Applying Critical Mathematics Education, 2021-07-05 There is no shortage of urgent complex problems that mathematics education can and should engage with Pandemics forest fires pollution Black Lives Matter protests and fake news all involve mathematics are matters of life and death have a clear political dimension and are interdisciplinary in nature They demand a critical approach The authors in this volume showcase new insights teaching ideas and new and unique ways of applying critical mathematics education in areas as diverse as climate change obesity decolonisation and ethnomathematics This book demonstrates that there is plenty to be done with critical mathematics education Contributors are Annica Andersson Tonya Gau Bartell Richard Barwell Lisa Lunney Borden Sunghwan Byun Anna Chronaki Brian Greer Jennifer Hall Victoria Hand Kjellrun Hiis Hauge Beth Herbel Eisenmann Rune Herheim Courtney Koestler Kate le Roux Swapna Mukhopadhyay Aldo Parra Anita Rampal Sheena Rughubar Reddy Toril Eskeland Rangnes Ulrika Ryan Lisa Steffensen Paola Valero and David Wagner Uprooting University Apartheid in South Africa Teresa A. Barnes, 2018-12-07 South Africa continues to be an object of fascination for people everywhere interested in social justice issues postcolonial studies and critical race theory as manifested by the enormous worldwide attention given to the RhodesMustFall movement In this book Teresa Barnes examines universities complex positioning in the apartheid era and argues that tracing the institutional legacies left by pro apartheid intellectuals are crucial to understanding the fight to transform South African higher education A work of interpretive social history this book investigates three historical dynamics in the relationship between the apartheid system and South African higher education First it explores how the legitimacy of apartheid was historically reproduced in public higher education Second it looks at ways that academics maneuvered through and influenced national and international discourses of political freedom and legitimacy Third it explores how and where stubborn tendrils of apartheid era knowledge production practices survived into and have been combatted during the democratic era in South African universities Reading Coetzee's Women Sue Kossew, Melinda Harvey, 2019-07-24 This is the first book to focus entirely on the under researched but crucial topic of women in the work of J M Coetzee generally regarded as one of the world s most significant living writers The fourteen essays in this collection raise the central issue of how Coetzee s texts address the woman question There is a focus on Coetzee s representation of women engagement with women writers and the ethics of what has been termed his ventriloquism of women s voices in his fiction and autobiographical writings right up to his most recent novel The Schooldays of Jesus As such this collection makes important links between the disciplines of literary and gender studies It includes essays by well known Coetzee scholars as well as by emerging scholars from around the world providing fascinating and timely global insights into how his works are read from differing cultural and scholarly perspectives Cape Town and the Cape Peninsula Post 1806 Teresa Strauss, 1989 Halvorsen: Sharing Knowledge, Transforming Societi, 2023-01-10 In June 2016 the Norwegian Programme for Capacity Development in Higher Education and Research for Development Norhed hosted a conference on the theme of knowledge for development in an attempt to shift the focus of the programme towards its academic content This book follows up on that event The conference highlighted the usefulness of presenting the value of Norhed s different projects to the world showing how they improve knowledge and expand access to it through co operation A wish for more meta knowledge was also expressed and this gives rise to the following questions Is this way of co operating contributing to the growth of independent post colonial knowledge production in the South based on analyses of local data and experiences in ways that are relevant to our shared future Does the growth of academic independence as well as greater equality and the ability to develop theories different to those imposed by the better off parts of the world give rise to deeper understandings and better explanations Does it at least spread the ability to translate existing methodologies in ways that add meaning to observations of local context and data and thus enhance the relevance and influence of the academic profession locally and internationally This book in its varied contributions does not provide definite answers to these questions but it does show that Norhed is a step in the right direction Norhed is an attempt to fund collaboration within and between higher education institutions We know that both the uniqueness of this programme and ideas of how to better utilise the learning and experience emerging from it call for more elaboration and broader dissemination before we can offer further guidance on how to do things better This book is a first attempt

The Stellenbosch Mafia Pieter du Toit, 2019-07-15 About 50km outside of Cape Town lies the beautiful town of Stellenbosch nestled against vineyards and blue mountains that stretch to the sky Here reside some of South Africa's wealthiest individuals all male all Afrikaans and all stinking rich Johann Rupert Jannie Mouton Markus Jooste and Christo Weise to name a few Julius Malema refers to them scathingly as The Stellenbosch Mafia the very worst example of white monopoly capital But who really are these mega wealthy individuals and what influence do they exert not only on Stellenbosch but more broadly on South African society Author Pieter du Toit begins by exploring the roots of Stellenbosch one of the wealthiest towns in South Africa and arguably the cradle of Afrikanerdom This is the birthplace of apartheid leaders intellectuals newspaper empires and more He then closely examines this club of billionaires Who are they and crucially how are they connected What network of boardroom membership alliances and family connections exist Who are the old guard and who are the inkommers and what about the youngsters desperate to make their mark He looks at the collapse of Steinhoff what went wrong and whether there are other companies at risk of a similar fate He examines the control these men have over cultural life including pulling the strings in South African rugby

Pursuing Justice in Africa Jessica Johnson, George Hamandishe Karekwaivanane, 2018-10-31 Pursuing Justice in Africa focuses on the many actors pursuing many visions of justice across the African continent their aspirations divergent practices and articulations of international and vernacular idioms of justice The essays selected by editors Jessica Johnson and George Hamandishe Karekwaivanane engage with topics at the cutting edge of contemporary scholarship across a wide range of disciplines These include activism land tenure international legal institutions and postconflict reconciliation Building on recent work in sociolegal studies that foregrounds justice over and above concepts such as human rights and legal pluralism the contributors grapple with alternative approaches to the concept of justice and its relationships with law morality and rights While the chapters are grounded in local experiences they also attend to the ways in which national and international actors and processes influence for better or worse local experiences and understandings of justice The result is a timely and original addition to scholarship on a topic of major scholarly and pragmatic interest Contributors Felicitas Becker Jonathon L
