systemic social harms rooted in the region's colonial past Reading crime fiction through the lens of criminological research Crime Fiction in the Caribbean brings the study of literary writing into scholarly debate on crime in the Caribbean At the same time it extends the global turn in crime fiction studies focusing on a region that has been sidelined even in studies which examine the genre's international dimensions Prospero's Daughter Constance Beresford-Howe, 1988 Pauline agrees to return to England to live with her father and half sister Once there she is constantly manipulated by her father as he attempts to arrange the life of his simple minded eldest daughter Nan before his death
