Family or Foe Jewel Garrison, 2017-05-22 Personality disorder is rife in Ghana As an experienced mental health practitioner I have had the opportunity to observe the behaviours of many people and this has led me to suspect that many of them may be suffering from some form of a personality disorder however in the absence of any formal knowledge about mental illness the Ghanaian public appears totally oblivious to this fact This coupled with the stigma of mental illness results in denial This book inspired by the lack of acknowledgement and or recognition of mental illness by the citizens of Ghana gives insight into and highlights the issues involved in this subject area with regards to a person suffering from what would appear to be a personality disorder It demonstrates how easy it is to apply theory to practice it takes the reader through a step by step critical review of the literature and theories associated with personality and personality disorder to arrive at a diagnosis of an individual with psychopathology It demonstrates the application of the literature in investigations and assessments in mental health and is a must read for anyone in the fields of medicine psychology and mental health nursing particularly students lecturers and teachers The critical analysis review of the literature and the demonstration of the correlation between theories the literature and relevant individual information and assessment to achieve the desired results of diagnosing the disorder are expertly competently and proficiently executed to highlight the ease with which anyone can do so particularly learners For the layperson this book gives insight into our day to day challenges of living with an individual suffering from a mental disorder specifically severe personality disorder of the

psychopathic and sociopathic types Helping? Gillian Berry, 2025-05-14 This book exists to encourage helping professionals particularly those at the beginning of their careers to critically explore and understand current strategies in fields such as psychotherapy psychology and social work Historical examples of helping policies and strategies used over the years are reviewed and critically evaluated as to whether they helped or hurt the communities they were designed to support Current policies will be discussed to evaluate whether they are helping the communities they serve In alignment with an Indigenous African centered philosophy of holism multi dimensionality and interconnectedness this work takes a multilayered approach to storytelling by weaving together three journeys the author s personal journey of exploration the journey of the Black Girl from George Bernard Shaw s novella described below and the reader s In it the author details her understanding of the philosophical framework she learned in professional helping training programs why she came to believe they were inadequate and how this sparked her global search to understand how to be an effective helper The author s journey is paralleled with the famous and controversial novella by George Bernard Shaw The Adventures of the Black Girl in Her Search for God which is a depiction of the universal search for understanding This text contrasts this alternative perspective on helping with the dominant approaches to what constitutes helping The protagonist s journey is mirrored by the author s stories of discovery and reflective questions are designed to enable the reader s journey toward becoming a professional helper in the context of current systems This text explores what helping may look like from an alternative philosophical perspective seeking to facilitate a process that will enable people to live more satisfyingly Each chapter offers theoretical underpinnings from an Indigenous African centered perspective a critique of dominant approaches to helping and a different stage of the Black Girl and authors paralleled searches for understanding about God and healing respectively
