The Economics of Defense Industry Thomas-Durell Young, 2023-10-17 This book on the economics of defence industry assesses a series of historical and contemporary case studies that consistently demonstrate the need for governments to recognise and thereafter factor the financial needs of a narrow industrial sector that is capital intensive technologically advanced and that requires a highly skilled labour force Since the end of the cold war Western governments have systematically reduced financial support to their domestic defence industry and have seemingly ignored planning and funding industrial mobilisation In all cases government policy has been to encourage industries to consolidate capacity to become financially viable in a sector that has seen diminished demand The 2022 Russian invasion of Ukraine has caused Western governments to reassess their previous assumptions Efforts to increase industrial capacity have been met with the iron laws of economics whereby businesses need to show return on investments The chapters in this volume posit that efforts to rationalise industrial capacity and innovation to meet short term financial efficiencies inevitably results in limited expensive and long delays in increased production in times of international crisis This book serves as an essential guide for academics researchers and students interested in defence economics industrial economics international relations and industrial policy The chapters in this book were originally published in various issues of Defense Security Analysis

Salut ,1994 Post-conflict Reconstruction and Development in Africa Theo Neethling, Heidi Hudson, 2013-10-01 Some of the bloodiest conflicts occur on the African continent An Afrocentric perspective is therefore a suitable starting point for research into the possible strategies for post conflict peacebuilding The authors of this book consider the problems around the concept of post conflict and the blurring of military and civilian roles analysing the UN roles in the DRC and Sierra Leone as well as the African Union Mission in Burundi The main context of the book however is the South African Army s strategy for PCRD in Africa which was developed with the African Union s 2006 Post Conflict Reconstruction and Development Needs Assessment Guide in mind This book emanates from this plan It therefore also explores South Africa s policy imperatives to integrate development projects and peace missions involving the military as well as civilian organisations While this book is not intended as an instruction manual it hopes to ignite an understanding of the particular processes required to develop a sustainable and cohesive post conflict peacebuilding strategy within the African environment Guerrillas and Combative Mothers Siphokazi Magadla,2023-12-01 Guerrillas and Combative Mothers is a narrative of women participating in the armed struggle against apartheid from 1961 to 1994 and their lives in a democratic South Africa Focusing on their agency commitment beliefs and actions it describes how women got politicised and the decisions and circumstances that led them to join the armed struggle in South Africa and exile Siphokazi Magadla discusses the forms of military training they received the combat activities and their transformation as women and soldiers Magadla also talks about their participation in the South African National Defence Force led demobilisation process and their contributions to the democratic transformation of the SANDF By illuminating the different eras and arenas of their participation this book shows the broadness of the armed struggle against apartheid as a historical truth and as a matter of gender equality and justice for an inclusive and more democratic future The Devil In The Detail Paul Holden,Hennie van Vuuren,2011-11-02 The South African Arms Deal was never a single event Rather it was and still is a series of scandals and outrages all contributing towards a dubious momentum that takes South Africa further away from transparent democratic practice The Devil in the Detail written by two of South Africa s leading researchers on the subject takes the reader on a journey of insight Witness at close hand the breaking open of State secrets with tales of outrageous personal enrichment Explore how the Arms Deal emerged out of the criminal networks of both the old SADF and the ANC s security apparatus raising questions as to whether South Africa s remarkable transition was not oiled at key points by criminal intent and collusion Follow the trail of the various offset deals done after the Arms Deal cumulatively worth just as much as and discover that corruption continues to impact on defence spending in South Africa Examine the economics and witness how the Arms Deal was not only economically irrational but virtually suicidal almost single handedly derailing the post apartheid economic project Finally read about the rise of the shadow state the politicisation of prosecutions and the rise of the spooks The remarkable conclusion of this landmark study is that years after the deal took place the forces that drove its decisions have only grown in strength further blighting South Africa s prospects for a future in which all may have a share

Peacekeeping in Africa Marco Jowell,2018-02-21 In recent decades African states have developed an impressive infrastructure for training their peacekeepers In addition peacekeeping peacebuilding and associated areas of conflict resolution have become significant areas of employment Marco Jowell has spent a decade working in peacekeeping training in East Africa initially as one of the foreign Technical Advisers at the Peace Support Operations PSO training centre in Kenya the International Peace Support Training Centre IPSTC and subsequently as a strategic adviser to the Rwanda Peace Academy Using first hand experience he considers how military forces from a variety of African states with great differences in history language and political systems and with militaries with different cultures and capabilities can conduct complicated multinational peacekeeping operations He shows how regional peacekeeping training centres provide an environment for African elites predominately military to interact with each other through shared training and experiences This process of interaction or socialisation improves skills but also encourages cohesion so that future African led missions will be managed by well trained officers who are comfortable and willing to work within a regional or Pan African framework Jowell shows that part of the aim of peacekeeping training centres is to foster a Pan African outward looking ideology or disposition as well as improving technical ability This book will be essential reading for all involved with African military and security studies and analysts of peacekeeping training and operations Aspects of Peacekeeping Stuart Gordon, Francis
