CHAPTER 1 – The Development of the Accounting Profession

- The primary purpose of accounting is to provide quantitative information, about economic entities, that is to be used as the basis for formulation of economic decisions.
- A branch of accounting called management accounting is designed to meet the information needs of these internal users.
 - Internal Users
 - Active Owners and Managers
- The general purpose reports provided to external users are called the financial statements, which are the product of a broad branch of accounting called financial accounting.
 - External Users
 - Inactive Users
 - Creditors and Lenders
 - Suppliers
 - Potential Investors
 - Taxing Authorities
 - Regulatory Bodies
 - Employees and Employees Unions
 - Financial Analyst
 - Advisers and General Public
- Users may also be categorized as direct or indirect
 - Direct Users – use financial information as a tool to protect their own interest in the enterprise.
 - Owners
 - Managers
 - Creditors
 - Suppliers
 - Customers
 - Employees
 - Taxing Authorities
 - Indirect Users – use accounting information to provide advice to or protect the interest of a direct user.
 - Regulatory Agencies – protect the interest of the investors and the public
 - Labor unions – protect the interest of the employees
 - Financial and Legal Consultants – provide advices and assistance to their clients who may be customers, lenders or suppliers of the firm
- Accounting primarily provides information that can be measured and expressed in terms of units of measure. The monetary unit is generally the unit of measure used in communicating accounting information.
- Accounting Entity Concept – the concept that separates the personality of the enterprise from that of its owners and other stake holders. An accounting entity is capable of controlling its own economic resources and incurring economic obligations.
