The Cold War Begins 1945–1960

Why It Matters

After World War II, an intense rivalry developed between the United States and the Soviet Union—two superpowers with very different political and economic systems. This rivalry, known as the Cold War, led to a massive buildup of military weapons on both sides. The determination of American leaders to contain communism also led to the Korean War, in which over 36,500 Americans died.

The Impact Today

The effects of Cold War events are still evident today.

- The NATO alliance works to guarantee the security of many democratic countries.
- The math and science training important to the space race remains an educational priority.
