EU Sports Law and

Breakaway Leagues in Football Katarina Pijetlovic, 2015-02-02 Katarina Pijetlovic is the first author to address the issue of breakaway leagues in football and their treatment under EU law. In this book she guides the reader through EU sports law, the specificities of the sporting industry and the problems and power struggles in European football governance in the context of the breakaway threats by elite clubs. In order to analyse the legality of UEFA clauses that restrict the formation of such breakaway structures, the author first provides a progressive interpretation of the applicable EU sports law and an in-depth analytical review of EU sports cases decided under internal market and competition provisions, including a novel perspective on the UEFA home-grown rule and the Bosman case. Thereafter, she sets out an original theory of convergence between TFEU provisions on competition and the internal market in the light of sporting exceptions. Finally, in applying the legal principles thus outlined, Katarina Pijetlovic explores the legality of the restrictive UEFA clauses and the case for the formation of alternative leagues in European football under EU sports law. A number of surprising outcomes emerge from this analytical process. Conversely, she also tests the largely neglected issue of the legality of forming a breakaway league by the European elite football clubs. The systematic way in which the reader is guided through EU sports law and the legal issues under consideration makes the book accessible for EU lawyers as well as non-EU sports lawyers, on both an academic and a practitioner's level. Katarina Pijetlovic holds licentiate and doctoral degrees in EU sports law from the University of Helsinki. The book appears in the ASSER International Sports Law Series under the editorship of Dr David McArdle, Prof Ben Van Rompuy and Marco van der Harst. LL.M.

The History of Bacup Football Club Roger Hindle, 2014-08-31 The history of Bacup Football club 1879-2014. The 160-page book charts the club's history and development as a non-league football club in Lancashire. It captures the club's highs and lows and features photographs and stories through the years.

Myths and Facts about Football Patric Andersson, Peter Ayton, Carsten Schmidt, 2009-10-02 This book presents accounts of economic and psychological analyses of association football or soccer as it is popularly known in the USA. As football is widely accepted to be the world's most popular sport, the case for scientific investigation of its characteristics is self-evident. As the contributions to this book demonstrate, the game of football offers an ideal opportunity to empirically investigate a wide range of broad issues, for example: behavioural decision making, judgmental forecasting, motivation, game-theoretic models of strategic choice, competition and labour markets. Are teams more likely to concede a goal after having just scored? Does the team going first in a penalty shoot-out have an advantage? Should goalkeepers dive or stay put for penalty kicks? Do referees make decisions consistently? Why do fans like their teams? What factors influence the career of footballers? How well can experts predict football matches? How accurate are prediction markets? How does the stock market react to match outcomes? These questions and others are addressed in this book. A particular focus is the investigation of popular conceptions and misconceptions about football. Of interest to psychologists, behavioural economists and football enthusiasts with an analytic approach to understanding the game, this book brings together contributions from a range of academic disciplines and will stimulate further research into football and the intriguing insights into behaviour it offers See feature article in The Independent October 8th 2008 <http://www.independent.co.uk/sport/football/news-and-comment/fact-or-fiction-form-in-football-954440.html> Listen to interview with Patric Andersson on Swedish National Radio <http://www.sr.se/cgi-bin/P1/program/index.asp?ProgramID=1302> Read Chris Charles's blog on BBC website http://www.bbc.co.uk/blogs/chrischarles/2008/10/101025_lies_damned_lies_and_statistic.html

The World's First Football Superstar Owen Arthur, 2022-08-25 Buried in an unmarked grave in the churchyard of the small village of Benson in Oxfordshire lies the body of a footballing world champion from a bygone era shrouded in the mists of time His name was Stephen Smith This footballer of the Victorian and Edwardian era could claim as many league title winning medals as John Terry and Wayne Rooney more league winners medals than Eric Cantona Frank Lampard Cristiano Ronaldo Thierry Henry and Alan Shearer This book is the never before told story of a footballer born at the end of the Industrial Revolution son of agricultural labourers who became a miner working underground combining that job with one as a professional footballer to rise to the top of the footballing world Smith won trophy after trophy in the best and only professional league anywhere in the world at that time He also scored the goal that made England World Champions in 1895 Smith at the top of his game in a move that mirrored the Premier League breakaway of 1992 and the recent ill fated European Super League then joined the newly formed Southern League at a time when the Football League started to cap player wages He did this in order to ensure his family's future as well as end his reliance on his part time earnings from mining Football's zeitgeist has fundamentally changed very little in the last 130 years for those inside the industry This is the story of Stephen Smith and the quest to find the support and funds to mark and commemorate one of the most decorated yet underappreciated footballers in the history of the game

Face to Face Kausik Bandyopadhyay, 2021-03-30 While rivalry is embedded in any sporting event or performance soccer the world's most popular mass spectator sport has been an emblem of such rivalries since its inception as an organized sport Some of these rivalries grow to become long term and perennial by their nature extent impact and legacy from the local to the global level They represent identities based on widely diverse affiliations of human life locality region nation continent community class culture religion ethnicity and so on Yet at times such rivalries transcend barriers of space and time where soccer clubs nations personalities organizations styles and fans float and compete with intriguing identities The present volume brings into focus some of the most fascinating and enduring rivalries in the world of soccer It attempts to encapsulate analyse and reconstruct those rivalries between nations between clubs between personalities between styles of play between fandoms and between organizations in a historical perspective in relation to diverse identities competing ideologies contestations of power psychologies of attachment bonds of loyalty notions of enmity articulations of violence and affinities of fan culture some of the core manifestations of sporting rivalry The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of Soccer Society

Football in Neo-Liberal Times Peter Kennedy, David Kennedy, 2016-02-05 This book offers an original Marxist critique of the European football business It argues that the Marxist account of the difference between profits and surplus value is crucial to an understanding of the fluid and contradictory nature of the commodification of football Section one analyses the nature of modern professional football and section two highlights attempts via government agency and football clubs to corral fans into ever greater identification with business logic aimed at breaking traditional social relations Section three draws on a number of cases studies across Europe to analyse how some fans are attempting to mount a counter ideological response to the assault of neo liberalism on the game
