No Known Grave:

No Known Grave Maureen Jennings, 2016-05-10 From the well known author whose books inspired the wildly popular Murdoch Mysteries TV series comes the third WWII era DI Tom Tyler mystery for fans of Foyle's War wartime dramas and of course Maureen Jennings. It's summer 1942 and after a tough couple of years DI Tom Tyler is making a fresh start in Ludlow Shropshire. On the outskirts of town St Anne's Convalescent Hospital, staffed by nursing sisters who are Anglican nuns, has been established in an old manor house to help victims of the war to recover. After a horrifying double murder is discovered on the grounds, Tyler must figure out how the crime could have occurred in such a secluded and presumably impenetrable place where most of the patients are unable to walk or are blind or both, not to mention deeply traumatized. To add to the puzzle, Tyler begins almost immediately to receive mysterious letters recounting terrible crimes far away. He realizes that he is not only seeking the murderer but that the horrors of the war are closing in on this place that was meant to be a refuge. Maureen Jennings, beloved author of the Murdoch novels that inspired the popular TV series known as The Artful Detective in the US, surpasses herself in this vivid portrayal of wartime Britain, brilliantly blending a classic murder mystery with a deeply human story of how the effects of war live on far from the fields of battle.

The Clare War Dead Tom Burnell, 2011-05-01 The Clare War Dead is a comprehensive record of those men from County Clare who died during the Great War and is the next instalment in this prolific author's series on the subject. His tireless research has been undertaken to honour those who died in service and to shine a light on an aspect of Irish history which has for too long gone unexamined and unrecognised. Such a list, combined as it is with intricate data and previously unpublished correspondence and photographs, is an essential addition to any local historian or military enthusiast's bookshelf. This is Tom Burnell's seventh book in this series, following on from the success of similar titles on Waterford, Offaly, Wexford, Wicklow, Tipperary and Carlow.

Fatal Charge at Gallipoli John Hamilton, 2015-04-30 Armed only with rifles, bayonets and raw courage, the men of the 3rd Light Horse Brigade left the shelter of their rocky trenches to storm The Nek, a narrow stretch of ridge held by the Ottoman Turks. The first wave of attackers were cut down almost as soon as they stood up. Those that followed knew they were going to die. Yet they too charged without question, stumbling over the bodies of their fallen comrades before they also fell. The commander of the 10th Light Horse Regiment attempted to have the third wave cancelled, claiming that the whole thing was nothing but bloody murder, but he could not convince the Brigade Major. Using the letters and diaries of those who fought and died in this famously futile action, award-winning journalist and best-selling author John Hamilton takes the reader on a journey from the rush to recruit in August 1914 when war was declared, through the training camps to the unforgiving terrain of Gallipoli and the unbending Turkish defenders, and finally to that fateful morning and that fatal charge. Part of a trilogy by John Hamilton, this title was first published in 2004 by Pan Macmillan Australia, only being sold in the Australian and New Zealand markets under the title Goodbye Cobber. God Bless You The Fatal Charge of the Light Horse Gallipoli August 7th 1915
