No Name Woman:

Literary Contexts in Memoirs, 2006 American Women's Autobiography Margo Culley, 1992 Focus on the works of Harriet Jacobs Elizabeth Cady Stanton Gertrude Stein Mary McCarthy Maxine Hong Kingston and others Feminism and Global Chineseness: The Cultural Production of Controversial Women Authors Aijun Zhu, 2007 This book deconstructs the controversy of globally located Chinese women authors including Maxine Hong Kingston America Wei Hui Mainland China Li Ang Taiwan and Li Bihua Hong Kong It vividly shows how these authors are trapped in a dilemma between feminism nationalism and neocolonialism complicated by the powerful influences of global popular culture This book not only engages in the much debated major issues such as gender nation narration and globalization but more profoundly it also points out the cultural and political significance of literary and cultural criticism a much neglected area of research The author's detailed examination of Chinese nationalism from the perspectives of gender and globalization shows her sharp awareness of the changing geopolitical mapping of Chineseness Critics of Chinese literature and culture will benefit from this work in this era of social and political changes In Her Mother's House Wendy Ho, 1999 Unwilling to see Asian American women silenced beneath the noisy discourses of feminists cultural nationalists and Eurocentric historians Wendy Ho turns to specific spoken stories of mothers and daughters Against reductive tendencies of scholarship she places her own conversations with her China born grandmother and her U S born mother and her own readings of other Asian American women writers She finds in the writings of Maxine Hong Kingston Amy Tan and Fae Myenne Ng not only complex mother daughter relationships but many faceted relationships to fathers family community and culture Always resisting the simplistic explanations In Her Mother's House brings Asian American women's experience as mothers and daughters to the forefront of gender and ethnicity Women in Chinese Martial Arts Films of the New Millennium Ya-chen Chen, 2012-01-01 Women and Gender in Chinese Martial Arts Films of the New Millennium by Ya chen Chen is an excavation of underexposed gender issues focusing mainly on contradictory and troubled feminism in the film narratives In the cinematic world of martial arts films one can easily find representations of women of Ancient China released from the constraints of patriarchal social order to revel in a dreamlike space of their own They can develop themselves protect themselves and even defeat or conquer men This world not only frees women from the convention of foot binding but it also unbinds them in terms of education critical thinking talent ambition opportunities to socialize with different men and the freedom or right to both choose their spouse and decide their own fate Chen calls this phenomenon Chinese cinematic martial arts feminism The liberation is never sustaining or complete however Chen reveals the presence of a glass ceiling marking the maximal exercise of feminism and women's rights which the patriarchal order is willing to accept As such these films are not to be seen as celebrations of feminist liberation but as enunciations of the patriarchal authority that suffuses Chinese cinematic martial arts feminism The film narratives under examination include Crouching Tiger Hidden Dragon directed by Ang Lee Hero Zhang Yimou House of the Flying Daggers Zhang Yimou Seven Swords Tsui Hark The Promise Chen Kaige The Banquet Feng Xiaogang and Curst of the Golden Flower Zhang Yimou Chen also touches upon the plots of two of the earliest award winning Chinese martial arts films A Touch of Zen and Legend of the Mountain both directed by King Hu

The Female Face of Shame Erica L. Johnson, Patricia Moran, 2013-05-16 The female body with its history as an object of social control expectation and manipulation is central to understanding the gendered construction of shame Through the study of 20th century literary texts The Female Face of Shame explores the nexus of femininity female sexuality the female body and shame It demonstrates how shame structures relationships and shapes women s identities Examining works by women authors from around the world these essays provide an interdisciplinary and transnational perspective on the representations theories and powerful articulations of women s shame

Writing the Survivor Robin E. Field, 2020-07-15 Writing the Survivor The Rape Novel in Late Twentieth Century American Fiction identifies a new genre of American fiction the rape novel that recenters narratives of sexual violence on the survivors of violence and abuse rather than the perpetrators The rape novel arose during the women s liberation movement as women writers collectively challenged the traditional erasure of female subjectivity and agency found in earlier representations of sexual violence in American fiction The rape novel not only foregrounds survivors and their stories in a textual centering that affirms their dignity and self worth but also develops new narratological strategies for portraying violent disturbing subject matter In bringing together many key women s texts of the last decades of the 20th century the rape novel demonstrates the centrality of sexual assault to women s fiction of this era The rape novels of the 21st century continue the political activism inherent in the genre educating readers offering community to survivors and encouraging social activism as the stories of male survivors are increasingly told A radical reconsideration of late twentieth century American novels Writing the Survivor underscores the importance of women s activism upon the novel s form and content and reveals the portrayal of rape as rape to be an interethnic imperative

Maxine Hong Kingston Helena Grice, 2013-07-19 Since the publication of The Woman Warrior in 1976 Maxine Hong Kingston has gained a reputation as one of the most popular and controversial writers in the Asian American literary tradition In this volume Grice traces Kingston s development as a writer and cultural activist through both ethnic and feminist discourses investigating her novels occasional writings and her two book life writing project The publication of The Woman Warrior not only propelled Kingston into the mainstream literary limelight but also precipitated a vicious and ongoing controversy in Asian American letters over the authenticity or fakery of her cultural references Grice traces the debates through the appearance of China Men 1981 as well as the novels Tripmaster Monkey 1989 and her most recent work The Fifth Book of Peace Maxine Hong Kingston will be of value to students and academics researching in the areas of diaspora writing contemporary American and Asian Amercianfiction as well as feminist and postcolonial literature

The Indian Partition in Literature and Films Rini Bhattacharya Mehta, Debali Mookerjee-Leonard, 2014-12-17 This book presents an examination of fictional representations in books and films of the 1947 Partition that led to the creation of the sovereign nation states of India and Pakistan While the process of representing the Partition experience through words and images began in the late 1940s it is only in the last few decades that literary critics and film scholars have begun to analyse the work The emerging critical scholarship on the Partition and its aftermath has deepened our understanding of the relationship between historical trauma collective memory and cultural processes and this book provides critical readings of literary and cinematic texts on the impact of the Partition both in the Punjab and in Bengal The collection assembles studies on Anglophone writings with those on the largely unexplored vernacular works and those which have rarely found a place in discussions on the Partition It looks at representations of women s experiences of gendered violence in the Partition riots and how literary texts have filled in the lack of the human dimension in Partition histories The book goes on to highlight how the memory of the Partition is preserved and how the creative arts relation to public memory and its place within the public sphere has changed through time Collectively the essays present a nuanced understanding of how the experience of violence displacement and trauma shaped postcolonial societies and subjectivities in the Indian subcontinent Mapping the diverse topographies of Partition related uncertainties and covering both well known and lesser known texts on the Partition this book will be a useful contribution to studies of South Asian History Asian Literature and Asian Film On the Legacy of Maxine Hong
