Run the Song Ben Ratliff, 2025-03-18 LONGLISTED FOR THE 2025 NATIONAL BOOK AWARD FOR NONFICTION A revelatory exploration of the relationship between music and running by one of our foremost music writers Out the front door across the street down the hill and into Van Cortlandt Park in the Bronx This is how Ben Ratliff's runs started most days of the week for about a decade Sometimes listening to music not always Then at the beginning of the pandemic he began taking notes about what he listened to He wondered if a body in motion his body was helping him to listen better to the motion in music He runs through the woods along the Hudson River and into the lowlands of the Bronx He encounters newly erected fences for an intended FEMA field hospital and demonstrations against racial violence His runs and the notes that result from them vary in length just as the songs he listens to do seventies soul jazz hardcore punk string quartets liane Radigue's slow change electronics Carnatic singing DJ sets piano music of all kinds Sade Fred Astaire and Ice Spice Run the Song is also the story of how a professional critic frustrated with conventional modes of criticism finds his way back to a deeper relationship with music When stumped or preoccupied by a piece of music Ratliff starts to think that perhaps running can tell him more about what he's listening to let's run it he'll say And with that the reader in turn is invited to listen alongside one of the great listeners of our day in this wildly inventive and consistently thought provoking chronicle of a profoundly unsettling time
