Causey Enterprises, LLC, The Case for Tenure Matthew W. Finkin, 1996 At a time when some institutions of higher learning are questioning the need for academic tenure and numerous state legislatures are considering its abolishment Matthew W Finkin presents a thorough and unapologetic case in defense of tenure Finkin has culled materials from a variety of sources economic analyses judicial opinions investigative reports institutional studies speeches and personal essays to survey the entire system of tenure from probationary appointment to retirement or dismissal for cause To these viewpoints he adds his own commentary to illuminate what tenure means and to clarify what it does and does not protect He places the need for tenure not only in historical perspective but also in the highly charged context of the contemporary campus In suggesting the origins of the concept of academic tenure for example Finkin excerpts the 1915 Declaration on Academic Freedom and Tenure That document characterized the university as an intellectual experiment station where new ideas may germinate and where their fruit though still distasteful to the community as a whole may be allowed to ripen until finally perchance it may become a part of the accepted intellectual food of the nation or of the world DK Eyewitness Travel complex philosophical ideas its goal is not to merely tease out some abstract philosophical problem but instead to intervene and provoke new directions in the contemporary discussion of the university in crisis and to be part of a collection of works inspiring a more just society      WALNECK'S CLASSIC CYCLE TRADER, SEPTEMBER 2000 Causey Enterprises, LLC,

Intelligent Giving Jonathan P. Caulkins, Jay Cole, Melissa Hardoby, Donna J. Keyser, 2002-06-20 Provides an intellectual framework for guiding prospective major donors in giving more effectively to higher education Although most major gifts are profoundly motivated by charitable intentions the noble impulse to give to higher education can quickly generate complicated choices Which school Which program Under what terms or conditions Even very talented people who have enjoyed exceptionally successful careers in business and other fields can become disoriented by academe's idiosyncrasies This book provides an intellectual framework for guiding prospective major donors in giving more effectively to higher education It supplies some insight into the higher education sector donor opportunities the development process and how to think about and get the most from a _negotiation_ with the institution of the donor's choice The insights and strategies are culled by a RAND research team mainly from interviews with development officers institutional leaders and donors themselves Ultimately the giving process that works best for any donor will depend on his or her individual interests and needs The best advice is to be clear on what effect the donor wants his or her gift to have to seek as much information on the school situation as possible and to consult with an attorney and a good financial advisor at all stages of the giving process
